the voice of the patient and their perception."

She said that there are more than 50 hospitals in South Dakota, so to be ranked in the top five in many categories is a significant achievement.

"We feel as if this is a good measure of our success. If we are compared and ranked in the top percentile of the nation, it means we're among the best of the best and that's where we want to be," Rezac said. "Our patients and people in the area deserve that kind of care."
