YHS Dance Fourth At State

RAPID CITY — The Yankton Gazelles dance team placed fourth in the S.D. State Class AA Competitive Cheer and Dance Championships, held on Saturday at Stevens High School.

Sioux Falls Washington won its sixth consecutive dance title with an overall average of 293.67, followed by Brandon Valley (292.17) and Sioux Falls Roosevelt (265.5).

Yankton posted an average of 263, scoring a 255 in jazz, 267.5 in kick and 266.5 in pom.

Yankton placed 10th in dance with a score of 183.5. Sioux Falls O'Gorman and Watertown tied for the title with a 236.

Class A

Dakota Valley successfully scored its fourth straight Class A dance title on Friday.

The Panthers scored an average of 260, beating out Winner (247.83) and Platte-Geddes-Dakota Christian (227.83).

Dakota Valley had the top score in jazz (277) and pom (272), and finished second in hip-hop (231).

Sioux Valley won the dance title with a score of 219.5. Dell Rapids St. Mary's scored a 203, followed by Platte-Geddes-Dakota Christian (185.5) and Dell Rapids (180.5).

Bon Homme finished eighth (176.5), with Dakota Valley (155.5) placing 13th.

year's state meet, finished a strong second ahead of defending champion Woods.

Gorman was able to take solace in helping Stevens to the team title, ahead of city rival Rapid City Central, 58-99. The Gazelles placed third in the team race with a score of 110, while Pierre and Brandon Valley rounded out the top five.

Madison McClure nabbed the final all-state placing (top 25 individuals), with a 25th place finish. Lauren Graves (34th) and Whitlee Larson (47th) rounded out the Gazelles scoring.

"Madison worked her way up the pack and that's a great finish for her," Dannenbring said. "Lauren started off a little slow but closed hard and was chewing people up over the last 1,500 meters and laid it on the line and that's what we needed. I'm really proud of our girls for getting out and competing. Getting third is a great finish for us."

Tessa Folkers (53rd) and Abbey Vanmeeteren (101st) finished as pushers for the Gazelles.

On the boys' side, the Bucks were led by senior Brice Cowman, who Dannenbring said ran "the race of his life" to end the day and his high school cross country career in fifth place.

Addison Dehaven was heavily favored entering the afternoon and the Brookings standout did not disappoint, battling with Lincoln's Will Lauer early in the race before pulling away for a 26 second victory, covering the 5,000 meter course in 15:34.

Cowman, who was outkicked by one second in the final 50 meters, ended up with a time of 16:19.

"Brice tightened up in the last 300 meters but he put himself in a position to be fifth," Dannenbring said. "We were thinking going in if he can be sixth through tenth then it will be a great day, but he put himself in a great position and got out ahead of everybody and gutted it out. Only one kid can win and if you can do the very best you have ever done at the state meet then that's a great day."

Justin Grode came in second for the Bucks, placing 25th overall with a clocking of 17:22. Same Gusso (51st), Andrew Peitz (60th), and Kyle Bergeson (79th) rounded out Yankton's top five, guiding the Bucks to a sixth place team finish. Brady Jaquith (91st) and Brody McClure (108th) also competed for the Bucks.

"We had some kids who learned a lesson that you have to learn to deal with nerves and that there will be a lot of boys at the beginning and there will be some pushing and shoving," Dannenbring said. "Hopefully we learned a lot here."

The highlight of the afternoon for the Bucks though belonged to Cowman, a USD cross country and track recruit.

"I was really nervous coming into this knowing it was my last xc race," Cowman said. "I knew I had to put it on the line and I feel good about the way it ended."

Lincoln won back-to-back team titles for the first time since their 1970's dynasty under Rich Greeno on the strength of 2-3-4 finish. The Patriots also placed runners 12th and 13th and put all seven runners in the top 20, easily defeating Roosevelt 32-95.

Rapid City Stevens placed third while O'Gorman and Brandon Valley rounded out the top five.

PARKSTON — The Wagner Red Raiders beat Mount Vernon-Plankinton and Parkston for top honors in the Southeast South Dakota Conference Volleyball Tournament, held Saturday in Parkston.

Wagner edged Parkston 26-24, 25-27, 25-17 and MVP 25-21, 25-21 for the title. MVP beat Parkston 25-17, 25-22 to finish second.

The Red Raiders also beat Scotland 25-9, 25-10; and Gregory 25-14, 25-13.

Platte-Geddes finished fourth, followed by Bon Homme, Gregory, Chamberlain, Scotland and Burke-South Central.

Wagner's Brooklyn Tolliver, Kim Koupal and Gina Soukup and Mount Vernon-Plankinton's Makaela Karst, Dani Stoltz and Mikayla Weiss were named to the all-tournament team. Parkston (Laura Weiss, Whitney Weber) and Platte-Geddes (Josie DeGroot, Madi Whalen) each had two players selected. Also honored were Chamberlain's Kennedy Wagner, Scotland's Carley Skorepa, Gregory's Makenzie Odenbach, Bon Homme's Kelsey Sutera and Burke-South Central's Grace Hazen.

Wagner, 22-6, travels to Bonesteel to face Burke-South Central today (Monday).

Cedar Catholic Tri.

HARTINGTON, Neb. — Hartington Cedar Catholic went 1-1 in a home volleyball triangular on Friday, beating O'Neill 2-0 and falling to Wayne 2-1.

Cedar Catholic, 18-7, plays Pierce in the opening round of the Mid-State Conference Tournament today (Monday) in Battle Creek, Neb.

HARTINGTON CEDAR CATHOLIC DEF. O'NEILL 25-16, 25-10: Emily Feilmeier had 23 assists and Bailey Steffen had eight kills to lead Cedar Catholic.

Also for HCC, Reggan Noecker had seven kills. Kayla Hochstein and Alli Walter each had six kills. Karly Noecker had seven digs in the win.

WAYNE DEF. HARTINGTON CEDAR CATHOLIC 21-25, 25-21, 25-15: Karly Noecker had 10 kills and 10 digs, and Emily Feilmeier had 29 assists and 10 digs to lead Cedar Catholic.

Also for HCC, Kally Leise had 11 digs, Bailey Steffen had six kills and Alli Walter had five kills for the Trojans.

Gage Blaschke (28:07.60), freshman Christian Petrich (28:31.10) finished 84th, senior Joshua Monson (28:41.23) placed 90th, senior Mychal Bierwagen (28:42.50) placed 92nd, freshman Jordan Houdek (30:01.90) placed 123rd, sophomore Ryan Oye (30:37.41) placed 137th, freshman Sky Humbert (31:53.99) placed 144th, freshman William Lawrence (36:38.98) finished 157th and sophomore Vincent Raia (38:51.05) placed 158th.

"It was a very competitive field," Fischer said of the men's race. "It's probably as high as we've placed on the guys' side as well. We would have had to run a lot better to finish any higher."

Concordia head coach Kregg Einspahr was happy with the way his team competed against a field that included three ranked teams, including his 15th-ranked Bulldogs.

"We knew Dickinson State (26th), Morningside (18th) and Dordt (24th) were all good teams," he said. "Our guys put themselves in position to have a good day. We had a couple of guys that had by far their best races, not necessary our top couple."

Einspahr said that, with two miles to go, the Bulldogs were not in a position to win the team title.

"We had some runners move up 15 places in the last two miles," he said. "They competed extremely well."

Carter pulled away from Concordia's Ben Sievert (25:27.76) and Morningside's Garret Ehlers (25:32.34) for the title. The sophomore felt that his Blue Hawk teammates helped push him to victory.

"My teammates and I were going so fast together," he said. "They kept me going toward the end."

While Carter had hoped Dickinson State could defend its title in the meet, he was happy to see the Blue Hawks finish ahead of two teams ranked ahead of them.

"I was a little disappointed that we didn't get the victory, but we gave our best effort," he said. "We're going to do well in the post-season."

Former Nebraska standout and Yankton grad Jared Ailts placed seventh in 26:07.70. Morningside senior Taylor Kube (Crofton, Neb., 26:38.03) placed 24th. SDSU sophomore Austin Hamm (Bloomfield, Neb., 26:59.88) finished 35th. SDSU freshman Duane Jongeling (Parker, 27:11.85) finished 44th. Dakota Wesleyan junior Trace Tjeerdsma (Avon, 28:37.86). Dordt freshmen Seth Engen (Irene, 29:27.12) and Ben Brockmueller (Freeman, 30:35.82) placed 111st and 135th. Briar Cliff freshman Tyler Smith (Bloomfield, Neb., 32:25.42) finished 146th. Former Lancer Kevin Cosman (35:03.19) finished 156th.

MMC now turns its attention to the Great Plains Athletic Conference Championships, Nov. 9 in Seward, Neb. The Lancer women will be looking to give themselves an outside chance at qualifying for the NAIA National Championships as a team.

"I'm so proud of our team," Smelker said. "We're looking forward to conference. I want to pull this team into nationals."

After a runner-up finish last year as a seventh grader, Vermillion's Madisen Lavin knew what extra work would be required to climb up one spot higher and the eighth grader's extra efforts paid off as Lavin edged out Lead-Deadwood's Mattie Shirley Fairbair by two seconds for the Class A individual crown.

Lavin sprinted out to the early lead and never faltered through the 4000 meter race, even though the victory was not a sure thing until she out-kicked Fairbair over the final 400 meters through a tunnel of cheering spectators to stop the clock at 14:45.

"I just wanted to go out strong and stay up front and be able to bring it all the way back (to the finish)," Lavin said. "Last year getting second as a seventh grader was a great experience – I was happy with it – but I still wanted more. I decided to keep training and to push myself harder, to the limit."

The last minute course change from the relatively flat Elks Golf Course to hillier Robbinsdale Park due to the early October blizzard might have worked in Lavin's favor as well.

"This was the perfect weather for me and this course is a fit for someone who likes hills and I like hills," Lavin added. "I think that might have helped me just a little bit. People said (the original course) was flat but I knew hills help and trained hills all year long to push myself."

Garretson claimed the team title with Custer placing runner-up as early favorite Madison struggled to a third place finish.

Ethan-Parkston and Beresford finished fifth and sixth in the team race while Dakota Valley ended up ninth.

Taya Heisinger led Ethan-Parkston with an 18th place finish while teammate Lexy Leischner just missed all-state honors with a 28th place effort. Other Ethan-Parkston runners included Jessica Enderes (34th), Patience Nesheim (42nd), Hannah Wegehaupt (70th), and Katie Murtha (94th).

Ashlynn Atwood led the Watchdogs to their sixth place team finish with an 11th place individual effort while Cait Savey (28), Hannah Ebert (65th) and Caitlyn Worth (80th) rounded out the Beresford scoring. Also competing for the Watchdogs were Lexy Johnson (83rd) and Shelby Bickett (93rd).

Dakota Valley was paced by Marisa Schulz (10th) and Claire Johnson (37th) while the Panthers also had Carlie Long (52nd), Olivia Ohm (112th), Alex Peters (113th), and Jenna Kittler (119th) competing.

Bon Homme's Maddison Hajek placed 21st to earn all-state honors while Elk-Point Jefferson's Josie Heeren (37th) and Wagner's Margaret Barnett (72nd) and Sadie Eitemiller (73rd) also ran in the event.

In Class A boys' action, Custer's Logan Burns took the individual title with Todd County barely edging out Flandreau for the team award, 75-76. Beresford's boys placed sixth with 110 points while Dakota Valley came home 14th with 212 team points.

For the Watchdogs, Peter Auch led the way, placing 17th. Mike Erlandson (29th), Riley Schaap (31st), and Nick O'Connell (76th) rounded out the four scorers while Cole Homandberg (82nd) and Jake Limmer (91st) were Beresford's pushers.
