AREA MOVIES

Opinions are by reviewers from Philadelphia Inquirer, the Los Angeles Times and The Associated Press. Ratings by the Motion Picture Association of America are: (G) for general audiences; (PG) parental guidance urged because of material possibly unsuitable for children; (PG-13) parents are strongly cautioned to give guidance for attendance of children younger than 13; (R) restricted, younger than 17 admitted only with parent or adult guardian; (NC-17) no one younger than 17 admitted. RATINGS: 4 stars: Excellent; 3 stars: Good; 2 stars: Fair; 1 star: Poor. NOTE: Y — playing in Yankton; Ve — playing in Vermillion; T — playing in Tripp; Vi — playing in Viborg.
ALICE IN WONDERLAND (Ve-Vi) ★★ Tim Burton's inspired new big-screen take on Lewis Carroll's fantasy stars Mia Wasikowska in the title role, with Johnny Depp as the Mad Hatter. 1 hr. 48 PG (action violence, hookah-smoking caterpillar, suitable for those eight and older)
THE BOUNTY HUNTER (Y) ★1/2. Desperately unfunny action romance starring Gerard Butler's biceps and Jennifer Aniston's glutes. Did someone say Booty Hunter? 1 hr. 50 PG-13 (language, profanity, sexual references)
CLASH OF THE TITANS (Y-VE) ★★ Who wants to be a god, anyway? That's the principle twist inserted into the remake of the sometimes fondly recalled, technologically dated 1981 film about the fury of the gods of Mount Olympus and the rise of the young, earthly demigod Perseus. This time, Perseus (Sam Worthington) bears a distaste for his godlike nature. He fights a serpentine Medusa, the sea monster Kraken and other mythical beasts for mankind, not for the deities. Liam Neeson plays the angry god Zeus, while Ralph Fiennes, in a cloud of black smog, plays Hades. Directed by Louis Leterrier (2008's "The Incredible Hulk"), "Titans" will lure moviegoers chiefly by its digital effects (which are good but forgettable) and its promise of 3-D spectacle (which, having been converted from 2-D to 3-D in post, disappoints altogether). Worthington, the Australian star of "Avatar," doesn't supply the charisma the movie needs and the whole thing feels like a joyless slog. PG-13 for fantasy action violence, some frightening images and brief sensuality. 106 minutes.
DIARY OF A WIMPY KID (Y-Ve) ★★1/2. Workmanlike adaptation of the popular Jeff Kinney tween novels about the Everyboy stuck in the middle of middle school. With Zachary Gordon and

Robert Capron. 2 hrs. PG (rude humor, language)
HOT TUB TIME MACHINE (Y) ★★1/2. If time and space hooked up and got so hammered that they staggered beyond hangover into delirium, the result would be this shaggy and uneven comedy melding "The Hangover" and "Back to the Future." John Cusack, Rob Cordry, Craig Robinson and Clark Duke star. 1 hr. 38 R (nudity, sex, drugs, profanity)
HOW TO TRAIN YOUR DRAGON (Y) ★★ DreamWorks' CG-animated tale about a wimpy viking kid who befriends a big flying dragon, and the revelations that come from learning that fire-breathing mythical beasts feel ings, too. Light-hearted, rowdy fun, in both 2-D and 3-D formats. 1 hr. 38 PG (intense action sequences, scary mythical beasts)

PERCY JACKSON AND THE OLYMPIANS: THE LIGHTNING THIEF (T) ★★1/2. Misfit high-schooler Percy Jackson (Logan Lerman) learns that he is a demigod, goes to an academy for others of his kind and undertakes a quest to rescue his mother (Catherine Keener) and clear himself of the charge of stealing Zeus' lightning bolt. Heavy on the special effects and light on the playful humor that made Rick Riordan's young-adult series such fun. 1 hr. 59 PG (special-effects monsters, action violence, swordfighting)

SHUTTER ISLAND (Ve) ★★1/2. Disturbed minds and mind games dominate Martin Scorsese's psycho-thriller set on a remote island for the criminally insane. Based on Dennis Lehane's 2003 novel and starring Leonardo DiCaprio as the federal marshal whose inner demons become externalized. With Mark Ruffalo, Ben Kingsley and Patricia Clarkson. 2 hrs. 18 R (profanity, nudity, disturbing scenes of death and decomposition)
