the ball over the middle of the plate and the guy get a base hit or something?"
After Dunham flew out to left to end the game, Wenande faced another question: "How do you celebrate?"
"I'm kinda running out there not really knowing ... Do I jump up and down? Do I scream and yell, knowing with that second game was coming up," he said.
"The coaching staff did a good job of keeping us focused."

Nathanael Olson was the tough-luck loser, striking out 10 in the complete game effort.
"The kid that they threw, Nate Olson, he's good," said MMC head coach Andy Bernatow. "You match up ones versus ones (number one starters), you hope that your one comes out on top."

In the opener, Schmidt, Zach Lambrechts, Damewood and Justin Kemp each had two hits, with Damewood homering and Schmidt recording two doubles. Krier helped his own cause with a RBI double in the third inning.
Mount Marty responded in the second game, jumping out to an 11-1 lead before taking a 15-11 victory.
Wenande went 3-4 in the nightcap. Damewood went 2-4 with a double and a home run. Schmidt doubled and singled. Turbak also had two hits. Lambrechts homered in the victory.
David Kowal went 3-4 with two home runs and six RBI to lead Briar Cliff in the nightcap. Jacob Olivas went 3-4 with a home run and a double. Opsahl also had three hits. Andrew Belew doubled and singled, and Siller and John Elliot each recorded two hits for the Chargers.

Allen Hemyer, who gave up the first eight runs (seven earned), picked up the win. Crofton, Neb., native Nick Hegge, who gave up eight runs (six earned) in the first 1 2/3 innings, took the loss.

The wins improved Mount Marty's record to 19-7 and put them atop the GPAC standings with a 6-0 league record. The Lancers are the final unbeaten team in league play entering today's (Monday) game with Sioux Falls.

"It's still early, we're still in the first half of the season, so we've got a ways to go," Bernatow noted. "But we definitely like where we sit right now. We're going to be in a situation now where the target's going to be on our back."

The Lancers' games with Sioux Falls (15-12, 4-2 GPAC) will begin today at 1 p.m. at Riverside Stadium.

Fremark Family Miller, South Dakota

They raise crops on the same land where they raise their family. They take great personal care and consideration to ensure the land remains productive for generations to come. Every day, they balance the need to follow the rules and feed the world. No one is more connected to the land. No one is more committed to the land.

That is why South Dakota farmers are "the true environmentalists."
