hitting 4-4 with four RBIs. Turbak matched his teammate getting two hits with five RBIs. The second game was different for both teams.
Nick Huston took the mound for the Lancers. He threw six innings allowing ten runs, while striking out four to drop his third loss of the season.
"Nick got out of his comfort zone a little bit in those first couple of innings," Bernatow said. "What I did like from Nick today was holding the other team at bay to try to get our offense in a rhythm."
Jordan Ahrendt took the mound for the Cougars. He threw seven innings shutting down Mount Marty's offense to only one run.
"Jordan has had good track record against Mount Marty," Guiliano said. "Last two years, he has thrown really well against them."

USF looked a different team in the second game. It started with a lead off home run by Cody Minich to take an early 1-0 lead. The inning was t over for the Cougars. Andrew Jenkins stole second and third and scored the second run of the ball game on a throwing error by Wenande. The same happened with Cody Burgener stealing second and third and scoring on a throwing error by Wenande.
"We knew a lot of teams like to throw off speed," Guiliano said. "We just made a few adjustments to allow our players to sit back and drive the ball."
The Lancers scored their only run of the second game on an RBI double by Damewood.
The Cougars continued to be aggressive on the base paths stealing a combined 10 bases in the game.

Damian Kardas had a strong three RBI game for USF with three hits a home run shy of hitting for the cycle. Jenkins had two hits including a two run home run.
"Sitting back and trusting our hands allowed us to go to the opposite field," Guiliano said. "We had three opposite field home runs, when we let the ball travel we had good results."
The Lancers are looking to forget the second game and looking ahead for some fun against South Dakota State University on Wednesday. Then getting back down to business against GPAC rival Dana on Saturday.
"We are looking to have fun against SDSU, as the season progress it just a great opportunity to play them," Bernatow said. "Then, we are looking to get back on track this weekend in our conference play."
