Man Arrested In Shooting Amid Times Square Mayhem

NEW YORK (AP) — Police arrested a man Tuesday on weapons charges in the shooting of two women during a sprawling brawl near Times Square that left two others wounded and police officers injured.

Raynon Guice, 20, was arrested Tuesday on charges of assault and criminal possession of a weapon. Two 19-year-old women were shot — one in the elbow and another in the thigh — near Seventh Avenue and 34th Street. Another man was hit in the ankle in an unrelated shooting and a woman and hit with a BB gun during the mayhem Sunday and Monday morning. Police were still investigating those incidents.

Police said hundreds of young people spilled into midtown Manhattan near Times Square early Monday in what has become a raucous annual ritual on the weekend of the New York International Auto Show. Police Commissioner Raymond Kelly said Tuesday that some of those involved that year skipped the auto show altogether and headed straight for Times Square.

According to court documents released Tuesday, people arrested sprained a police officer's wrist, hurled bottles at one another and at least one had a knife during the brawl.

Besides the 33 arrested, another 23 were released after getting summonses or juvenile reports.

The yearly ruckus has spurred stabbings and dozens of arrests before, but Monday's mayhem brought more arrests and gained more attention than usual. It came amid concerns about an uptick in murders, felony assaults and rapes in the first quarter of this year after several years of historic lows.

year, Brad deserved to be in the limelight. There was never a time I can remember that I went to him with a request for anything that he said no. For that, we want to thank and honor him."

Items that will be auctioned throughout the evening include trips, tickets to South Dakota State and University of South Dakota football games, a variety of dinners and more.

"With less funding being made available to schools, it is becoming more important than ever to establish ways to support our schools, teachers and students, and we hope you will join us in our effort to achieve this goal," Rhodes said. "Come and join us for a fun evening and help us celebrate all that Brad had done for our community."

Tickets can be purchased by contacting Rhoades at 665-8981 or 660-2033; Smith at 665-3611; Bob Winter at 665-8369; or Curt Dykstra at KYNT at 665-7892. Tickets will also be available at the door. However, the 63-3 Foundation asks that you call and RSVP.
