AREA MOVIES

Opinions are by reviewers from Philadelphia Inquirer, the Los Angeles Times and The Associated Press. Ratings by the Motion Picture Association of America are: (G) for general audiences; (PG) parental guidance urged because of material possibly unsuitable for children; (PG-13) parents are strongly cautioned to give guidance for attendance of children younger than 13; (R) restricted, younger than 17 admitted only with parent or adult guardian; (NC-17) no one younger than 17 admitted. RATINGS: 4 stars: Excellent; 3 stars: Good; 2 stars: Fair; 1 star: Poor. NOTE: Y — playing in Yankton; V — playing in Vermillion; T — playing in Tripp; Vi — playing in Viborg.

THE BOUNTY HUNTER (Y) ★1/2. Desperately unfunny action romance starring Gerard Butler's biceps and Jennifer Aniston's glutes. Did someone say Booty Hunter? 1 hr. 50 PG-13 (language, profanity, sexual references)

CLASH OF THE TITANS (Y-Ve) ★★1/2. A cheesy remake of the even cheesier 1981 ancient Greece adventure, about Perseus' epic quest to end Hades' reign of terror and broker a peace deal between gods and man. "Avatar's" Sam Worthington does Perseus with an Aussie accent, and bearded and be-wigged Liam Neeson and Ralph Fiennes spar as Zeus and Hades, respectively. 1 hr. 46 PG-13 (swords, sorcery, giant snakes and bare shoulders) Eurobarbers)

DIARY OF A WIMPY KID (Y) ★★1/2. Workmanlike adaptation of the popular Jeff Kinney tween novels about the Everyboy stuck in the middle of middle school. With Zachary Gordon and Robert Capron. 2 hrs. PG (rude humor, language)

DATE NIGHT (Y-Ve) ★1/2. Steve Carell and Tina Fey's night out is not so much a bad date as a sad date. These are two of the funniest people ever on television, yet this big-screen comedy is a dreary, uninspired waste of their talents — and those of the top-name cast inexplicably appearing in throw-away roles, including Mark Wahlberg, Mark Ruffalo and James Franco. The movie manages the barest glimmers of the droll humor of Carell's "The Office" and the snappy wit of Fey's "30 Rock." Carell and Fey have an easy, affectionate rapport as run-down parents whose big evening out leads to mistaken identity and sets them on the run from crooks. The actors try hard to make it work, but the low-brow sensibilities of director Shawn Levy (the "Night at the Museum" movies) leave them tottering through painful verbal exchanges, lame stunts and other dreadfully unfunny hijinks. PG-13 for sexual and crude content throughout, language, some violence and a drug reference. 88 minutes.

HOW TO TRAIN YOUR DRAG-

ON (Y-T) ★★★ DreamWorks' CG-animated tale about a wimpy viking kid who befriends a big flying dragon, and the revelations that come from learning that fire-breathing mythical beasts have feelings, too. Light-hearted, rowdy fun, in both 2-D and 3-D formats. 1 hr. 38 PG (intense action sequences, scary mythical beasts)

SHE'S OUT OF MY LEAGUE (Ve) ★1/2. Why would a babe fall for a dweeb? In this cheerfully vulgar (but with a heart) sex comedy, Jay Baruchel and Alice Eve are proof of the proposition that people are more than their looks. 1 hr. 44 R (sexual candor, extreme profanity, risque humor)
