Agent: Sex Pistols' Former Manager Dies

LONDON (AP) — The British agent for former Sex Pistols manager Malcolm McLaren says the music impresario has died in New York. He was 64.

Les Molloy says McLaren had been suffering from cancer for some time and died Thursday.

The multitalented McLaren rose to fame as the colorful manager of seminal punk band The Sex Pistols.

The art college dropout is also known for his famous "Let It Rock" clothes shop he opened on London's Kings Road with Vivienne Westwood.

to figure out how I am going to do this. ... They do that now with Jessica Alba sometimes and Megan Fox and they get no respect."

Welch said she managed to turn the corner in her career when she starred and produced the 1972 movie "Kansas City Bomber" at MGM, in which she played a single mother who becomes a roller derby star.

"I said let's do something completely different — not glam. I got very good reviews. I felt a rite of passage where I am over that part where I have to run around in a bikini forever. It's just so painfully uncomfortable and in a way kind of humiliating."

But she admits she never turned down sex kitten roles early in her career like the X-rated "Myra Breckinridge."

"I am not a fool," she explains. "I realized when I came along, I wasn't Meryl Streep who had been put into a bikini. I was somebody that got rocketed into the spotlight and superstardom overnight. I knew this was going to give me an opportunity and I should make the best of it.

"I think that I managed to do that but it was not easy. I didn't want to stay in people's minds just as a physical presence."
