DAILY RECORD

POUND COUNT

Several animals are available at the Yankton Animal Shelter. For more information call the Yankton Police Department's Animal Control Officer, from 8 a.m.-4 p.m. Monday-Friday at 661-9494, or 668-5210. A $5 fee is required to adopt an animal. Animals can be viewed on the Humane Society Web site at www.heartlandhumane.org.

DAILY RECORD POLICY

The Press and Dakotan publishes police and sheriff reports as a public service to its readers. It is important to remember that an arrest should not imply guilt and that every person is presumed innocent until proven otherwise. When juveniles are released from jail, it is into the care of a parent or guardian. It is the policy of the Press and Dakotan to publish all names made available in the police and court reports. There are no exceptions.

Institute For Teachers of Gifted Youth Begins July 19 At USD

VERMILLION — The University of South Dakota School of Education will host the eighth annual Institute for Teachers of Gifted Youth, July 19-20.

The Institute featuring Creativity offers two days of workshops that include presentations, training, and panel discussions on several topics important to the education of gifted youth. Additionally, the Institute features keynote speaker, Wendy Leader, Ph.D., chairperson-elect of the Creativity Network for the National Association for Gifted Children and coordinator of Gifted Programming in Grand Junction, Colo. One-credit toward recertification is available for teachers attending the two-day session.

"We are thrilled to provide this opportunity for teachers in our region," stated Trudi Nelson, Ed.D., Institute Director and assistant professor of education at USD. "The Institute is a great resource for teachers and school specialists to learn more about how they can strengthen programs for high-ability students."

The first of two sessions begins 8 a.m. on Monday, July 19 with Leader hosting the workshop, "Beyond the Cookbook and into the 21st Century." The primary focus of this workshop is creativity in the classroom and preparing students with skills for the 21st century. Tuesday's second session also begins at 8 a.m. and includes instruction from Roberta Kaufman, Ph.D., assistant professor of education at USD and Nelson.

Ambassadors of Excellence campers will be featured in a panel discussion on meeting the needs of gifted students. For participants who wish to include the Institute as part of a three-credit graduate class, SPED 762: Nature and Nurture of Creativity is being offered July 21-23.

Tuition for the Institute for Teachers of Gifted Youth is $100 for the one-day Monday workshop ($75 for SDAGC members) or $150 for the two-day workshop. The offered graduate course, SPED 762: Nature and Nurture of Creativity, 8 a.m. to 5 p.m., is a required course in the gifted certification sequence for the State of South Dakota and includes participation in the Institute. Participants will develop a project following the course, which they will submit to Kaufman. Tuition rates are charged according to the Board of Regents policies and are subject to change without prior notice. Students will be billed for tuition and fees by the USD Business Office.

To register for the Institute or for more information, please visit www.usd.edu/gifted or contact Nelson at (605) 677-6479 or e-mail at trudi.nelson@usd.edu.

REGION DIGEST

Man Apprehended After Tuesday Theft

From P&D Staff Reports

A Gayville man was arrested Tuesday in connection with a theft at a Yankton gas station.

According to the Yankton Police Department, a report was received at 10:24 a.m. Tuesday that a theft had taken place at Prairie Pumper, located in the 900 block of Broadway. While an employee was away from the business counter, a man went to the register and stole cash.

Within a half-hour, Kyle Frieberg, 23, was apprehended as a suspect and charged with first-degree petty theft. Police did not disclose the amount of cash that was taken, but given the charge, it was between $400-$1,000.

YHS History Day Participants To Show Work

Yankton High School's National History Day competitors will feature their entries and research at Friday's Brown Bag Lunch program at the Dakota Territorial Museum, 610 Summit. The presentation starts at 12:10 p.m.

Each year high school students are invited to participate in History Day, an event for teachers and their students interested in developing critical thinking skills and understanding the past through original research. This year's theme is "History and Innovation."

Students present their information, in the of format of their choice, at a statewide competition with winners attending a national competition.

Giving presentations Friday will be:

- Jordan Koch (junior) and Hiley Cammock (junior) on "Preserving History: The Old-Fashioned Way"
- Amy Johnson (junior) and Joseph Boudreau (junior) on "Titanic: Innovation in Shipping."

Benefit For Hanson Family On April 17

VERMILLION — A benefit for the Doug Hanson family and the Staci Hanson family will be held Saturday, April 17, at the Eagles Club in Vermillion.

A wild game feed will be held at 5 p.m. There will be raffle drawings, with the grand prize being a 26-inch Sanyo LCD television. At 7:30 p.m., the Poker Alice Band will perform.

The event is sponsored by Larry Vellek of Tyndall, and all proceeds will go to help rebuild the Hansons' home, which was damaged in a fire on Dec. 9.

Youth Orchestra To Present Concert April 18

The Sioux Empire Youth Orchestra will present its spring concert at 3 p.m. Sunday, April 18, at the Yankton Middle School Auditorium.

This concert will feature chamber ensembles and string orchestra performing great musical works, featuring Bach's "The Art of the Fugue."

Admission is free, but a free-will donation will be accepted. For more information, contact Derick Rehurek at SiouxEmpireYouthOrchestra@gmail.com or visit http://www.SiouxEmpireYouthOrchestra.org/.

Real Estate Taxes Due In Yankton County

The Yankton County Treasurers Office reminds the public that the first half of the 2009 (payable in 2010) real estate taxes and the first half of the 2010 mobile home taxes are due and payable on April 30.

You can use the silver drop box on the north side of the Government Center for payments or bring them in to the office. If you mail the payments, they must have an April postmark.

Interest will be charged as of May 1.

Humane Society In Need Of Puppy Food

Yankton's Heartland Humane Society is in need of quality dry puppy food for the litters of puppies now in their care. If you would like to donate puppy food, donations are accepted at the shelter located at 601 1/2 Burleigh Street in Yankton. Any donations are greatly appreciated!

"We still have several puppies in foster care and available for adoption," said Tasha Anderson, executive director at Heartland Humane Society. "We continue to need good quality dry puppy food to feed them while they wait for new homes."

If you have questions about or would like additional information on donating food, contact Anderson at 605-664-4244 or e-mail hhs@midconetwork.com.

Story Time Event At Vermillion Library April 24

VERMILLION — Operation: Military Kids, Vermillion Public Library, the Burbank Feeders 4-H Club, and South Dakota Public Broadcasting are sponsoring a commemorative story time event in honor of Month of the Military Child.

Children ages 3 and older are invited to come to the Vermillion Public Library at 2-3 p.m. Saturday, April 24, to enjoy stories and a craft.

The community is invited to join in supporting military families and celebrating April as Month of the Military Child.

Operation: Military Kids (OMK) is a collaborative effort between Army, 4-H, American Legion, and Boys and Girls Clubs of America with the purpose of providing local community support for the children of South Dakota National Guard and Army Reserve Soldiers deployed to Iraq and Afghanistan. The state OMK office is housed within the South Dakota Cooperative Extension Service, located at the South Dakota State University's West River Ag Center.
