Honkers Battle Past Corsica-Stickney-Armour

PLATTE — Platte-Geddes-Dakota Christian battled past Corsica-Stickney-Armour 5-3 in club high school baseball action Thursday night.

Keifer Johnson put CSA on the board in the first with a solo home run. PGDC answered with a Calby Plooster solo shot, followed by back-to-back doubles by Mike Kimball and Randy Dyk to claim a 2-1 edge.

The Express tied the game in the second, as Kris Menning doubled, then scored on a sacrifice fly, but the host Honkers regained the lead in the bottom of the frame on a Tommy Holleman RBI single.

After CSA tied the game at 3-3 on a Kirby Baan Hofman home run, the Honkers took the lead for good in the bottom of third. Dyk had his second double of the game, then came in to score on a hit. PGDC added an insurance run on a Holleman single.

Dyk and Holleman each had two hits for PGDC, which had five extra-base hits among its 10 hits.

Baan Hofman had a triple and a homer, and Menning had two hits for the Expresss.

Mike Buitenbos picked up the win, with Richard Sternberg striking out seven in relief. Menning went the distance in the loss, striking out 10.

PGDC, 4-2, hosts Hot Springs Saturday. The Honkers then travel to Martin Sunday for games against Lead-Deadwood and Bennett County.

Sternberg had two hits, including a home run, and Cody Wagner had a two-run double to lead PGDC to a 7-3 victory in the JV game.

Connor Kuipers picked up the win, allowing an unearned run over three innings of work.

UFL Announces Omaha Expansion Team

OMAHA, Neb. (AP) — Omaha will host the fifth franchise in the United Football League, and former Boston College coach Jeff Jagodzinski will coach the team.

Commissioner Michael Huyghue said at a news conference that the yet-to-be-named team will play at Rosenblatt Stadium this fall, then move downtown to the new TD Ameritrade Park in 2011.

The fledgling minor league, which touts itself as a developmental league for the NFL, reportedly lost about $30 million in 2009, its first season.

The UFL is the sole owner of the Omaha team, but Huyghue said he hopes to find local investors to whittle the league's stake to 50 percent.

Omaha will join teams in Hartford, Conn., Sacramento, Calif., Las Vegas and Orlando, Fla., for a season that runs from September to November. Huyghue said the league hopes to announce another expansion team within three weeks and that it plans to add two franchises a year until the UFL reaches 12 to 14 teams.

The league is trying to identify non-NFL markets that have demonstrated a passion for football.

Huyghue said about 30 players landed on NFL rosters after the UFL season ended last year.

"The caliber we're looking for are players with NFL experience and an average age of 26," he said. "In some cases they played in Super Bowls, Pro Bowls. The fact the NFL hasn't expanded in several years means there is a strong pool of players."

Huyghue said the team will play a minimum of four home games, with players earning about $6,000 a week. The league's average attendance last year was about 10,000 a game.

Jagodzinski was offensive coordinator for the Green Bay Packers before leading Boston College to a combined 20-8 record in 2007-08. BC athletic director Gene DeFilippo fired Jagodzinski last year for seeking the New York Jets' head coaching job without permission.

Jagodzinski was hired as offensive coordinator by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in January 2009 but was fired 10 days before the season by first-year coach Raheem Morris.

Jagodzinski said he was excited about restarting his coaching career in Omaha, which is 50 miles from the University of Nebraska campus in Lincoln.

"One thing these people know is football," he said. "They understand the game and the passion of the game. You're going to see high energy, a fast tempo and a fun team to watch."

A name-the-team contest will be held, with fans given the choice of four nicknames: Mustangs, Stags, Navigators and Spirit.

of the second, and the score stayed that way until the fourth when the Coyotes tied the game.

Sophomore Alexa Rudeen singled to lead off the inning. She was forced out at second on a fielder's choice by junior Alaina Novotny.

Johnson's fielder's choice forced out Novotny at second for the second out. However, with two out in the inning, senior Rachel Fricke came through with the big clutch hit, ripping a double to deep right to score Johnson, tying the game at 2-2.

However, SDSU broke the tie in the sixth with three runs off of three hits and a Coyote error to take a 5-2 lead.

Senior Michelle Jones finished 2-for-3 with a double for USD, while Johnson finished 1-for-3 with a homer and an RBI and two runs scored. Fricke had the RBI double, junior Yankton native Lexie Eversley and Rudeen had hits for USD.

Game 2 was very competitive from start to finish.

SDSU scored first, taking advantage of a USD error to take a 1-0 lead in the first inning, but the Coyotes tied the game at 1-1 in the second.

From there, the game turned into a pitcher's duel between USD freshman Melissa Blackburn and SDSU's Kori Seidlitz. Blackburn kept the SDSU offense quiet, retiring 12 straight at one point.

The game was sent into extra innings tied at 1-1. SDSU scored the winning run in the bottom of the eighth on an error to secure the 2-1 win.

Senior Jasey Goedeken led the USD bats in Game 2, going 2-for-3. Bahlmann, Rudeen, senior Callie Roan and Jones had hits for the Coyotes.

USD gets a five-day break before returning to action next Wednesday at the University of Wisconsin. The doubleheader begins at 3 p.m. in Madison, Wis.

The Jackrabbits return to Summit League play on Saturday, when they host IUPUI in a doubleheader at noon.

WINNE

includes area standouts Cassie Schuurmans (Bon Homme) and Jessie Lee (Viborg), as well as Castlewood's Allison DeKam — who also signed Thursday.

On the track, Winne is a four-time state qualifier for Scotland. As a junior last spring, she placed in four events at the state meet, including second in the high jump, eighth in the 3200-meter relay, ninth in the 400 relay and 10th in the 800 relay.

Already having set a personal best of 5-5 in the high jump, Winne should be able to transition smoothly to the NAIA level, according to Mount Marty head track coach Randy Fischer.

"With her ability, she has the potential be a national-qualifying level for us," Fischer said Thursday night. "She's a great kid with a really nice work ethic; we've already see what she can do."

This season, Winne is looking to claim a state title in the high jump after finishing second in the event last year. She said that goal is "really good practice" for the efforts that will come in the GPAC and at the NAIA level.

"It'll be a new challenge, going against better athletes, but I'm definitely willing to work at it," she said. "I'm just excited to get over there."
