scoop. Josh is a tough cookie; he took a shot, but he was able to hold on."

The Lancers finally ended the game when Lambrechts drove home pinch-runner Dillon Lambley with a gapper to left-center. Lambley was running for Wenande, who reached on a Midland error, and was moved into scoring position with a sacrifice from Krier.

"It comes down to doing the little things right to get the big thing, and the big thing is getting a 'w,'" said Bernatow.

The game-winning hit capped off a 3-5 game for Lambrechts and a day that began with a 2-run homer.

"These guys come in with ability, but we talk about making stories while they're here, and a walk-off hit is a great story," said Bernatow. "He's a senior who's gotten better every day since he's been here; he's a great kid and nice stick."

Koehn, Midland's second-game starter, held the Lancer offense in check while scattering 10 hits while walking none. Derek Ruiz relieved the senior from Omaha in the eighth and took the loss.

Lancer starter Huston's three strikeouts came consecutively, but the righty from Hollister, California helped his cause most with three pickoffs in his five innings of work. Schmidt struck out six in four innings for the win.

"We ran into a great pitcher who's been the heart and soul of that program since he set foot there," said Bernatow to Koehn. "He did a nice job of mixing and matching, and he induced a lot of pop-ups."
