DAILY RECORD

POUND COUNT

Several animals are available at the Yankton Animal Shelter. For more information call the Yankton Police Department's Animal Control Officer, from 8 a.m.-4 p.m. Monday-Friday at 661-9494, or 668-5210. A $5 fee is required to adopt an animal. Animals can be viewed on the Humane Society Web site at www.heartlandhumanesociety.net.

DAILY RECORD POLICY

The Press & Dakotan publishes police and sheriff reports as a public service to its readers. It is important to remember that an arrest should not imply guilt and that every person is presumed innocent until proven otherwise. When juveniles are released from jail, it is into the care of a parent or guardian.

It is the policy of the Press & Dakotan to publish all names made available in the police and court reports. There are no exceptions.

ACCIDENTS

- A report was received at 6 p.m. Monday of a semi that had struck a stoplight in the 2300 block of Broadway.
- A report was received at 12:58 p.m. Tuesday that a pickup pulling a trailer struck a pump at a gas station along Highway 81. The vehicle was located north of the city and pulled over to collect information.

INCIDENTS

- A report was received at 6:22

p.m. Monday that a 16-year-old female from Gayville was unconscious in the 2000 block of Ross St. She had ingested "Barely Legal" incense and had to be taken to the emergency room. The incense, pipe and other paraphernalia were confiscated from the residence, and the female was released from the hospital about three hours after ingesting the substance.

- An open 9-1-1 call was received at 9:12 p.m. Monday from the area of Fourth and Burleigh streets. The call was most likely about a cow that had gotten loose from the nearby stockyard. Several attempts were made to catch the cow, which had last been seen south of Highway 50 on the east side of Yankton.

- A report was received at 12:47 a.m. Tuesday that a male had been sexually assaulted.

- A report was received at 11:26 a.m. Tuesday that an anti-tank rocket launcher was found in the garage of a newly-purchased home. Contact was made with federal authorities, who advised that the launcher could be legally possessed because it was disarmed. The launcher was then returned to the homeowner.

CRIME STOPPERS

Dowd To Deliver 2011 Volk Symposium At The U

VERMILLION — Anthony Dowd, chief of staff and special assistant to Paul Volcker, chairman of President Obama's Economic Recovery Advisory Board; will present, "The Dukes of Moral Hazard: Trust Banks, their Bailout, and the Volcker Rule" at 5:30 p.m. on Monday, April 11, at The University of South Dakota during the 2011 Arthur A. Volk Accounting Symposium at Farber Hall, Old Main.

Dowd, a graduate of the United States Military Academy with an M.B.A. from the University of Pennsylvania's Wharton School of Business, assists and advises Volcker with all aspects of his duties running the Economic Recovery Advisory Board. Most recently, he has served as managing partner at Charter Oak International Partners, a specialized private equity firm, and as director at Charter Oak Partners, a Connecticut based hedge fund. Additionally, Dowd has served on 18 corporate boards - both private and public; and he has extensive experience on compensation committees, executive or nominating committees, and audit committees.

As CEO of the management company at Charter Oak Industries, he integrated the insurance, employee benefits, legal and audit functions of the entire group consisting of more than 5,000 employees at 45 locations in five countries. From 2003 to 2009, he served as a general partner in a hedge fund group, and he previously served in the U.S. Army from 1981-86 and received several awards for meritorious service. Additionally, he has lectured on financial regulatory reform at the Stern Graduate School of Business at New York University.
