USD Tennis Swept In Green Bay

GREEN BAY, Wis. — The South Dakota women's tennis team lost a pair of matches Saturday in Green Bay, Wis. The Coyotes were nipped by Chicago State, 4-3 and lost to Wisconsin-Green Bay, 6-1 to fall to 8-13 on the season.

The shorthanded Coyotes, who were without the playing services of freshman Maddy Warder, battled tough against Chicago State. The Cougars won the doubles point and won three singles matches, but the Coyotes battled to wins at No. 4 and No. 5 singles. Junior Shadi Soleymani earned a 6-2, 7-5 win over Peggy Moore at No. 4 singles while sophomore Marina Kiefer rolled to a 6-1, 6-0 win at No. 5 singles.

The Coyotes won by default at No. 6 singles.

Against Green Bay, the Coyotes defaulted at No. 3 doubles and No. 6 singles. Soleymani earned a hard-fought win at No. 4 singles, prevailing, 6-4, 2-6, 10-4 (super tiebreaker) over Maria Anderson.

The Coyotes also won at No. 2 doubles as sophomore Veronika Makashov and junior Ysabel Nunez teamed up for an 8-5 win.

Next action for the Coyotes is on April 29-May 1 at the Great West Championship in Chicago.

Coaching Clinic April 30 At Tea

BEMIDJI, Minn. — The National Champion Basketball and Volleyball Academy have announced their South Dakota event schedule. The NBA and NCAA Tours have included revisions for each event. Each event date includes 90-minute player development sessions for two groups of grades 5-8 and 9-12 athletes and three 50 minute coaching clinic sessions. All instruction is from national champion college coaches or multiple state champion high school coaches.

The first event is at Tea Intermediate School in Tea, on Saturday, April 30. The NBA features Steve Schmidt, Mott Community College (MI), three time NJCAA Men's National Champions. The NCAA features Dennis Janzen, Fresno Pacific University, six time NAIA National Champions.

Lake Preston High School in Lake Preston will host the second event on Wednesday, June 15. Most academies are held on weekends and this is a test market to find out how a midweek event will be. The NBA will be announced next week. The NCAA features Teri Clemens, Washington University in St. Louis, seven time NCAA DIII National Champions including an unprecedented at any level six times in a row.

The player development registration fee is required, and includes the National Champion Drill Book. A limit of 60 athletes per session is required. Advance registration is encouraged.

There are also individual and all-staff coaching rates with a pre-registration deadline of 15 days prior to each event date. There is a group rate for unlimited attendance at all of the academies.

The National Champion Basketball and Volleyball Academy will be held on the same date and at the same facility and will host 19 events from April 30 to July 31 in the following states (number of academies in parenthesis): South Dakota (2), North Dakota (2), Minnesota (9), Wisconsin (4), and Iowa (2).

Defense Rules South Dakota State Spring Game

BROOKINGS — Linebackers R.C. Kilgore and Erich Feller returned first-half interceptions for touchdowns, lifting the defense to a 79-29 victory in South Dakota State's annual spring football game Saturday afternoon at Coughlin-Alumni Stadium.

Using a scoring system that rewards the offensive and defensive units for big plays and sustained drives, the Jackrabbit defense came out on top for the fourth year in a row by recording seven sacks, causing five turnovers and forcing nine three-and-out drives.

Kilgore tipped and intercepted a Jordan Thomas pass on the third offensive series of the game and returned it 43 yards to paydirt to give the defense an early 13-0 lead.

Three series later, Feller stepped in front of a Thomas O'Brien attempt and rambled 52 yards for a touchdown, giving the defense a 30-0 lead.

The Jackrabbit offense took advantage of a short field late in the first half to get on the board. O'Brien finished off a seven-play, 31-yard drive with a 10-yard scoring strike to Seth Daughters.

Justin Syrovatka added a 37-yard field goal moments later to make the score 40-12 at halftime.

In the second half, the defense remained dominant as it recorded six three-and-outs and forced a fumble and interception in the first eight offensive drives. Joe Kennedy recovered a fumble and Anthony Wohe notched an interception. Bo Helm added an interception later in the half as the defense built a 79-29 advantage.

Kyle Harris kicked a 50-yard field goal and Syrovatka added a 33-yarder in the second half.

Redshirt freshman quarterback Austin Sumner directed the Jackrabbit offense's only other touchdown drive of the game. On the first play, Sumner hooked up with Jeff Fish on a 38-yard pass play to put the ball at the 16-yard line. Three plays later, Sumner connected with Vince Benedetto for a 10-yard touchdown.

Sumner led Jackrabbit quarterbacks in passing by going 7-of-13 for 92 yards and a touchdown. O'Brien was 12-of-28 for 69 yards, a touchdown and three interceptions, while Thomas finished the day 2-of-9 for 28 yards and an interception.

Tyrel Kool (Yankton) led the ground game with 45 yards on eight carries. Luke Lansman and Aaron Rollin each caught three passes.

Mike Lien paced the defense with eight tackles, followed by seven each by Dirk Kool and Kyle VanVoorst. Zacharia Bowers notched two sacks among his four tackles.

The Jackrabbits will begin fall camp in early August, with the 2011 season opener set for Sept. 3 against Southern Utah in the 16th Annual Cereal Bowl.

Carnes, Turner Shine In Husker Spring Game

BY ERIC OLSON
 AP Sports Writer

LINCOLN, Neb. (AP) — Nebraska coach Bo Pelini thinks Brion Carnes showed enough in the Red-White game to push the Cornhuskers' top two quarterbacks come fall.

The redshirt freshman outplayed Taylor Martinez and Cody Green, throwing for 173 yards and two touchdowns and running for 40 yards.

"He's a talented young man," Pelini said. "The light, it's flickering. It just has to stay on. I can say that about a lot of the young guys."

Jamal Turner also drew loud cheers from the crowd of 66,784. A January enrollee who will be a true freshman this fall, Turner caught four passes for 93 yards, including a 49-yarder from Carnes for a TD. He also ran back a kick 54 yards and a punt 59 yards.

Pelini said he was impressed with a number of individual performances, but that it's hard to get a read on what it all means.

Nebraska installed a new offense this spring, and the play-calling was kept simple because Pelini didn't want to show off the system to the Huskers' new opponents in the Big Ten.

"It was about what I expected," Pelini said. "We mixed and matched a lot of personnel. There wasn't a lot of continuity out there. I thought it was a good game to watch. Hopefully the fans enjoyed it."

The Red squad defeated the White 32-29 on Brett Maher's 39-yard field goal as time ran out.

Offensive coordinator Tim Beck said the Huskers would have been competent running their new offense if they had chosen to do so. Beck installed a no-huddle system, but it wasn't shown Saturday.

"Our guys have run it for 14 days," Beck said. "Would I say we're clicking 100 percent? No, but we're getting better."

Green said it didn't help him or the other quarterbacks that the playbook was condensed.

"You know there are a lot of things out there we can do that can exploit the defense, but you sit out there and try to put on a show the best you can," Green said. "We didn't unleash the beast."

Carnes and Turner will be the names fans will be talking about at least until preseason practice begins in August.

Carnes quarterbacked eight full series resulting in two touchdowns for the Whites, two field goals, two missed field goals, a punt and a fumble. He also split a series with Green that ended with a TD.

Carnes, who completed 11 of 15 passes, made two strong throws to Turner along the sideline and also made a good decision when he pulled the ball down and ran for 24 yards.

Why do so many communications companies offer one-size-fits-all solutions? Because it's easy for them. Not because it's the best solution for you.

The truth is, one size truly can't fit all when it comes to phone, data and video communications. Because every business is unique.

Midcontinent Business Solutions™ develops custom, tailored solutions for phone, data and video. Creating one unique solution to fit your business – instead of making your business fit into one solution.
