RELIGION DIGEST

One-Night Bible School Planned Tonight

Yankton Baptist Church, 607 E 15th St., will present a one-night Bible School about Easter on Friday, April 22. The school runs from 6:30-8 p.m. and is free to the public.

For more information, contact the Rev. Matt Green at 605-665-7587 or visit www.YanktonBaptistChurch.com.

First Assembly Offers 'Eyewitness To History'

First Assembly has written a play, expressed in Music and Drama, about the week that followed the crucifixion of Christ called "EYEWITNESS TO HISTORY."

Most people know about the crucifixion of Christ and the Resurrection of Christ — but what happened to the friends and followers of Christ during the week in between? Did they feel defeated, alone, hopeless? They had spent years with Him and now He was murdered — an innocent man — were they afraid for themselves? See for yourself.

All are invited to come on Good Friday, April 22 at 7 p.m.; Saturday April 23 at 7 p.m.; or, Easter Sunday morning at 10 a.m.

First Assembly is located west of Fullertons.

House Of Mary Shrine To Hold Sunrise Service

The House of Mary Shrine will celebrate its 30th annual Easter Sunrise at the House of Mary Shrine starting at 6:05 a.m. Easter Sunday, April 24.

Deacon Kristopher Cowles will be the guest homilist.

Thrift Center Informational Meeting Set

Informational meeting for startup of a volunteer run Thrift Center in Yankton Thursday, April 28, 10 a.m., Calvary Baptist Church. Light refreshments will be served Bibles for Missions Thrift Center is a non-profit, inter-denominational, Christian ministry supporting Bible League in providing Bibles around the world.

For more information, please contact Jessica at 712-707-9933.

Peace Presbyterian Plans May Day Breakfast

Peace Presbyrterian Church will have a breakfast served by the men of the church from 8:30-9:30 a.m., on Sunday, May 1. Worship will follow at 10 a.m.

The menu will include omelets made to order, bacon, sausage, pancakes and cheesy potatoes.

A free-will offering will be accepted. Everyone is invited.

FCSLA To Vote For Delegates At Meeting

TABOR — First Catholic Slovak Ladies Association WO #93/Catholic Workman members are asked to attend a noon, potluck meeting on May 1 in Beseda Hall, Tabor.

FSCLA/C.W. members will be electing delegates and alternate delegates to the National Convention to be held Oct. 8-13 in Baltimore Md.

All WO#93 members are requested to attend.

Contact Joyce Sestak for any questions.

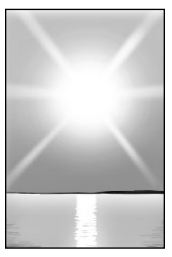
Sacred Heart Seeks Historical Items Of Church

Sacred Heart Parish of Yankton was established in 1871 and is the 2nd oldest parish in Dakota Territory. For a time it served as the Pro cathedral when Yankton was home to Bishop Martin Marty. Thousands have received Sacraments in the three church buildings that have stood at the corner of 5th and Capital. The parish is currently seeking items relating to the 140 year history of the parish. Old photos, items relating to the Sacraments, pieces from the old church, and any other mementos will be archived and used for display purposes. Please contact the Development Office at 665-4585 or drop items at the parish offices at 6th and Capital.

For God So Loved The World...

BY REVEREND LANCE LINDGREN
Vangen Lutheran Church, Mission Hill

"For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him may not perish but may have eternal life. Indeed, God did not send the Son into the world to condemn the world, but in order that the world might be saved through him…"
John 3:16-17



REFLECTIONS

Here we are, at the time of the year that expresses the heart of the Christian faith. How odd that today is called "Good Friday." Is it a "good" day for you? Well it should be, "For God so loved the world…"

But then, maybe you're exhausted, overworked, and wondering about your job; your career.

With the economy the way it is, do you know if you'll have a job tomorrow or next week? Is it a "good" day for you? "For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son…"

Maybe you're tired, and feeling unsure, wondering about a friend's or a loved-one's health. Will your spouse, parent, sibling, offspring, neighbor, or friend live to see another day? Is it a "good" day for you? "For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son…"

You're worried about your teenage son or daughter making right decisions about his or her life.

Do you know if your adolescent youth will resist the evils of substance abuse? Is it a "good" day for you? "For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son…"

Perhaps you've gone to Christ the Lord countless times, praying for some sign, some miracle, or some intervention to happen, to help you get through whatever is not making your day good. "For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him may not perish but may have eternal life…"

Today is the day we remember and reflect on our Lord Jesus going to the cross to die for the sins of all of humanity – my sins, your sins, our neighbors' sins. Who is this Jesus anyhow? What makes him so presumptuous to be the savior of the world – to be crucified on a cross so long ago for something (or some things) we've done wrong today? Who does he think he is? "For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him may not perish but may have eternal life…"

So what happens after today that the church so astutely labeled "Good Friday"? Christ Jesus has died, right? WRONG! In two days it'll be Easter. It's the day we'll hear and celebrate that Christ is not in the tomb.

Well, if he's not in the tomb, then where is he? He's in our midst – either in the person of the one who lost his or her job, home, family, and who's homeless; or the person undergoing cancer treatments and is determined to beat that utterly despicable disease; or the person who brings love and hope into our lives when we least expect it. "For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him may not perish but may have eternal life. Indeed, God did not send the Son into the world to condemn the world, but in order that the world might be saved through him…"

In two days Christians all over the world will be celebrating Christ crucified and risen. But don't you think it should be done each and every day of our lives? Oh yeah, I think so, I know so; I think we should, I know we should!

National Day Of Prayer To Be Held May 5

National Day of Prayer will be observed this year in Yankton and the surrounding area with a Prayer Breakfast beginning at 6:30 a.m. followed with a program from 7-7:45 a.m. this year at the United Methodist Church located at 207 West 11th Street. There will be no charge for the breakfast but reservations must be made. For reservations check with your pastor or call 605-665-2991. Reservations must be made by Tuesday, May 3 at noon. A basket will be available for a free will offering to be taken.

A ceremony beginning at noon will be held at the County Government Center located at West Third and Broadway. In case of inclement weather the ceremony will then be held at the City Gym, located at 5th and Walnut Streets. In the past years over 20 different prayer Leaders from business and churches have gotten together in this ceremony, which is also expected for this year.

The focus in both programs will focus on pray for seven areas of leadership of our nation. These areas are our government, churches, military, media, families, business and education. Leading in prayer includes businessmen as well as ministries represented in our area.

History for the concern of our leaders goes back to the founding of our nation where those who signed the Declaration of Independence went on record expressing their concerns for the future of our nation if we ever forget God. Benjamin Franklin makes this interesting statement as recorded by James Madison regarding the Federal Convention of 1787. "I have lived, sir, a long time and the longer I live, the more convincing proofs I see of this proof – that God governs in the affairs of men. And if a sparrow cannot fall to the ground without his notice it is probable that an empire cannot rise without his aid? We have been assured, Sir, in the sacred writings "that except the Lord build the House, they labor in vain that build it." I firmly believe this, and I also believe that without his concurring aid we shall succeed in this political building no better than the builders of Babel."

President Abraham Lincoln in 1863 on March 30th offered a proclamation declaration declaring Thursday, April 30th, 1863 a national day of humiliation, fasting and prayer." In 1952 Harry S. Truman signed a bill and in 1988, president Ronald Regan amended the law decreeing that the National Day of Pray should be held on the first Thursday of May.

Luncheon Fund-Raiser For Church Women May 6

Church Women United in Yankton is sponsoring a May Friendship Day event on Friday, May 6. A feature of the day will be fund-raising luncheons in homes of church members.

Hostesses for the 11:30 luncheons are: Ann Hudson, Bonnie Mattison, Pat Michels, Nancy Sternquist, Rita Wentworth and Anne Withrow.

A worship celebration will follow the luncheons at United Church of Christ, 5th and Walnut at 1:30 p.m.

Reservations will be accepted at Sacred Heart Monastery, 605-668-6000, through May 3.

Church Women United is an Ecumenical Christian organization celebrating 70 years of prayer and service this year. Currently, there are eight member congregations in Yankton.
