DAILY RECORD POLICY
 The Press & Dakotan publishes police and sheriff reports as a public service to its readers. It is important to remember that an arrest should not imply guilt and that every person is presumed innocent until proven otherwise. When juveniles are released from jail, it is into the care of a parent or guardian.
 It is the policy of the Press & Dakotan to publish all names made available in the police and court reports. There are no exceptions.

Celebrating 150 Years

The Press & Dakotan believes this is an opportune time to reflect upon the past, as well as look into the future.
 In past editions of the Press & Dakotan celebrating historic landmarks, the paper would mark the occasions by publishing the memories and/or thoughts of people who had a place in Yankton's past.
 We are inviting our readers to do just that. Share with us your favorite memory about living in Yankton, or tell us about a significant event in the city's history that you were involved with and about which future generations may want to know. Or, if you prefer, tell us about what you predict for Yankton's future.
 Historic photos are also welcome.

Take a serious or whimsical tone, whatever you think is appropriate. We want you to pay tribute to the Mother City of the Dakotas in your own special way.
 Keep your response limited to 400 words, and we'll publish as many of your entries as we can fit into a forthcoming special edition of the Press & Dakotan that will mark this 150th anniversary. Responses should be mailed to the Press & Dakotan c/o 150th Anniversary Reflections, PO Box 56, Yankton, SD 57078. Or, preferably, e-mail them to yankton150@yankton.net with the subject "150th Anniversary Reflections." Please include your name, address and a phone number with all entries.
 The deadline for submission is Friday, May 20.
