

National Library Week Slated For The Vermillion Public Library

VERMILLION — Libraries across the country will be celebrating National Library Week during the week of April 8-14. This year's theme is "You belong @ your library!" The Vermillion Public Library will be hosting several special events, especially for children.

There will be two after school programs for elementary students, each beginning at 3:45 p.m. and concluding at 5 p.m. On Tuesday, April 10, there will be a Book Carnival with games, activities, snacks and prizes. On Thursday, April 12, the USD Reading Council will be presenting a special program with activities based on the book "Wild About Books" by Judy Sierra.

Throughout the week, preschool story time participants are asked to bring a stuffed animal with them to story time. The children will be going home after we read "When Library Lights Go Out" and complete a craft project, but the animals are invited to stay for a Library Sleep-over. Children may pick up their stuffed animals the next day, and learn all about their adventures in the library after dark.

The National Library Week activities spill over into the following week, too. The Young Adult Book Club will meet at 3 p.m. Sunday, April 15, to discuss "The Hunger Games." Copies of "Catching Fire" will be distributed for next month's meeting.

For the adults, the Friends of the Library will host their annual Literary Luncheon on Thursday, April 19. Serving begins at 11:30 a.m. The special guest speaker this year is Diane Gubbels, who will share her "Stories of Inspiration." Diane is a talented designer and appliqué artist and her stories will unfold right along with the quilts she will display. Tickets for this event are currently on sale at the Circulation Desk.

to learn the music."

As for himself, Paa brings a familiarity of the band's music.

"It helps that I'm 25 years old and one of the older members of the orchestra. And my parents have listened to the band," he said. "As far as the songs, I know most of them. I know 'Carry On Wayward Son' from the 'Supernatural' TV show. Actually, it's one of their main themes. During one episode, they played 'Dust In The Wind.'"

The playlist for the USD concert will take KANSAS fans on a trip back through time.

KANSAS appeared on the Billboard charts for more than 200 weeks throughout the 1970s and 1980s and played to sold-out arenas and stadiums throughout North America, Europe and Japan. In fact, "Carry On Wayward Son" was the No. 2 most played track on classic rock radio in 1995 and went to No. 1 in 1997.

The band has produced eight gold albums, three sextuple-platinum albums ("Leftoverture," "Point of Know Return," "Best of"), one platinum live album ("Two for the Show") and a million-selling gold single, "Dust in the Wind."

In a press release, original member and drummer Phil Ehart said KANSAS enjoys the college symphony concerts and performing with young musicians.

"KANSAS and all the school symphonies just hit it off big time! The only people having more fun than us were all the students playing on stage with us!" he said. "And considering all the money that was raised to help the music departments, everyone considered it a real success. We know this year will be bigger and better!"

The band — which in addition to Ehart, is comprised of singer/keyboardist Steve Walsh, guitarist Rich Williams, bassist Billy Greer, and violinist David Ragsdale — continues to tour in front of large and enthusiastic audiences and to this day remains a fixture on classic rock radio.

Rognstad said the USD orchestra has found the KANSAS music not only classical but also challenging.

"I'm surprised how much the music changes throughout each piece," he said. "It's very complex, but I expect things to go quite smoothly. We have a very good conductor, and these are pop classics. It's really good music."

Farrell likewise believes the band's music has withstood the test of time.

"They are a famous band, and I think it will be a great opportunity for the students to play with a historic, legendary band," he said. "Even if there are generational issues (for the USD students), it was great music at the time and it's still great 30 or 40 years later."

Tickets are on sale at the Department of Music Offices at the Warren M. Lee Center for the Fine Arts at (605) 677-5274 or email music@usd.edu.

Tickets are also available at <http://www.tickets300.com>. Cost is $25 for USD students and $49.50 for the general public.
