Police: Six Marquette Players Involved In Club Fight

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Six Marquette University basketball players were involved in an altercation at a Milwaukee nightclub where they were ticketed for being underaged, according to a police report.

The Milwaukee Journal Sentinel said Friday it obtained the police report through an open records request filed Feb. 29. A partial report released March 20 made no mention of an altercation involving members of the Golden Eagles, the newspaper said.

However, in the newly released report, investigators describe a chaotic situation that ultimately resulted in 11 squad cars being dispatched to the club, Apartment 720, on Jan. 29. The report details at least two large fights at the club that night but does not make clear which one in-

As I stood watching Kyle McKelvey and Cody Snyder take their turns at the men's shot put during Friday's Dakota Duals track meet in Yankton, I couldn't fight one persistent thought:

Are these guys in college already?

Snyder, a sophomore, and McKelvey, a freshman, each set new University of South Dakota and state records in their respective throwing events — Snyder in the discus and McKelvey in the shot put.

Fighting the wind in my fleecy pullover, I was reminded of all those spring days when I watched the two at a random high school track meet. Snyder was the member of Class B throws at Andes Central and McKelvey was the state's top thrower — and a 3-time Class A champion — at Beresford.

Area Throws Duo Of McKelvey, Snyder Impress At Dakota Duals

But here they were, competing for a Division I college team. It was the first time they had competed together at an outdoor meet in South Dakota.

And for the contingent of fans surrounding the shot put pit on the northwest corner of the Williams Field complex, they didn't disappoint.

McKelvey won the shot put title with a record toss of 58-feet, 10.75 inches, with Snyder second at 53-11. It wasn't too much earlier in the afternoon that Snyder broke the state record in the discus with a throw of 186-8.

The Randy rank 1-2 in the shot put in the Summit League, while Snyder leads the conference in the discus — also ranking 10th nationally.

It's a scary prospect to think they'll have at least two more years together in an outdoor season, with McKelvey having three more years to improve on his marks.

Again, are these guys in college already?

UND Assistant Applies To Be Mankato Head Coach

GRAND FORKS, N.D. (AP) — University of North Dakota associate head hockey coach Gary Eades says he has applied for the head coach opening at Minnesota State-Mankato.

Mankato began a national search for a new coach after Troy Juttim was fired last week. Eades tells Forum Communications (http://bit.ly/He4lot) that he is happy at UND, but that head coaching opportunities don't come up often, so he is taking a look at the Mankato opening.

Eades played his college hockey at UND and coached at Warroad High School in Minnesota before becoming a member of the Fighting Sioux staff.

The Players of the Year in girls basketball are Ashley Robinson of Hanson, Class B; Caitlin Duffy of St. Thomas More, Class A and Heidi Hoff of Brandon Valley (Class AA).
