applications fall below 375,000, it generally suggests hiring will be strong enough to lower the unemployment rate. Some economists said temporary layoffs stemming from the spring holidays have inflated the figures. Many school employees are laid off during spring break and are eligible to file for benefits. "What we're seeing in the numbers is not unusual at this time of year," said Carl Riccadonna, an economist at Deutsche Bank. Applications will likely fall in the coming weeks, he added. Others said the gains may not only reflect seasonal adjustments. "Discouraging news on initial jobless claims suggests job growth is slowing," said Jennifer Lee, an economist at BMO Capital Markets. "Still growing, mind you, but at a slower pace." Hiring weakened in March after a fast start this year. Employers added only 120,000 jobs in March

Environmentalists say the pipeline still threatens Nebraska's water and wildlife, and they dispute company claims that it will create tens of thousands of U.S. jobs and reduce the nation's dependence on oil from hostile foreign nations. The review is expected to cost as much as $2 million. The state has spent roughly $153,000 since November but stopped the analysis after the permit was denied. Tuesday, April 20, 1937

Because of the necessity of the city to have legal counsel at all times, the board of city commissioners, at a meeting last night elected H. A. Doyle, Yankton attorney, to the post for the balance of the term of office of the late Howard Warren, who died yesterday morning. The administration, sticking to a no-new-taxes fiscal program, projected today another year of spending in excess of income. President Roosevelt's revised budget, read for submission to congress this afternoon, was reported by Senator Robinson (D-Ark) to call for a $1,500,000,000 relief appropriation for the year beginning July 1.
