Vermillion To Host New Watoto Choir Tour

Watoto, a holistic care program, initiated to serve the dire needs of Africa and her people, will present a brand new choir tour entitled "Beautiful Africa: A New Generation." The choir will perform at Grace Baptist Church, 1102 E. Main St., Vermillion, at 7 p.m. Thursday, May 3.

There will also be a performance at First Reformed Church, 101 N. Main, Platte, at 7 p.m. May 7.

With vibrant, original African music; dance routines; life-transforming stories, the tour is indicative of the new generation of leaders emerging out of Watoto.

The production debuted in the U.S. in September 2011 on the West Coast, and separate teams began traveling through Canada, UK, and Australia in January 2012.

With its genuine appeal, accompanied by music and dance — an energetic fusion of contemporary gospel and traditional African rhythm — the globally acclaimed Watoto Children's Choir has traveled internationally since 1994 as ambassadors for the millions of children in Africa, orphaned as a result of HIV/AIDS, war and poverty.

We Could Always Use More..

BY JEREMY NELSON

Youth Pastor At Calvary Baptist Church

In teaching students about what God says about money and possessions, I came across an interesting story. Here's the brief version: Quite a few years ago, an American company opened up an assembly plant in Panama. The problem they soon ran into was that many of the employees would work for only a short period of time, earn a couple paychecks, and then quit. They weren't quitting because of poor working conditions but they quit because they had all the money they needed. If you were a company executive, how would you hold on to your employees in Panama? Lower their wages? Have them sign a contract?

The solution they came up with was quite interesting. They simply sent their employees a Sears Catalog. Upon opening the catalog, the employees would find a number of items for sale that they never even knew they needed. The problem was solved. The employees kept working because they needed more money to buy these previously unnecessary items.

We live years later and in a different country but our minds work the same. We could always use more. We're not a very content people. Paul said to the Philippians (4:11) that he had learned the secret of being content. I'm not there yet. Are you?

The Sears Catalog is nothing compared to the barrage of marketing we face daily through the internet, TV, radio, billboards, etc. And we don't just covet what we see advertised, we covet what others have. Your friend's boat is better than yours, your neighbor's lawn is greener than yours, your sister's kids are better-behaved than yours, and everyone else is happily married while you're not. We are not content.

Worse yet, we have found that when we finally attained the coveted thing that we thought would make us content, somehow our attitude quickly reverts to discontentment. Jeremiah Burroughs noticed this back in the 17th century when he noted: "Many men think that when they are troubled and have not got contentment it is because they have but little in the world, and that if they had more they should be content. That is just as if a man were hungry, and to satisfy his craving stomach he should gape and hold open his mouth to take in the wind, and then should think that the reason why he is not satisfied is because he has not got enough of the wind; no, the reason is because the thing is not suitable to a craving stomach." We swallow a whole lot of wind.

So, what is the solution? The solution is to quit expecting satisfaction to come from a belly-full of wind and to turn to find our joy and satisfaction in God. Paul said earlier in Philippians that he counted everything as loss compared to the surpassing worth of knowing Christ. The secret of Paul's contentment was that he had gained Christ and been found in Him, not through any righteousness that came from following the law but through faith in Jesus (Phil 3:7-9). May you believe in the sufficiency of Christ and desire Him above all else.

Continuing Education Course Announced

Yankton College, in partnership with Eden Theological Seminary, will offer a pastoral theology course for pastors and lay leaders as part of the Associate degree program at Yankton College. The title of the course is "Faith Formation — Connecting Church and Home: Generation to Generation," and it will be taught by Dr. Diane E. Shallue, Director of Christian Education and Small Group Ministries at University Lutheran Church of Hope in Minneapolis.

This course will explore the strengths and challenges involved in intergenerational learning in congregations and provide skills in using this approach. This course will delve into six basic models of intergenerational learning and explore the four basic patterns of intergenerational planning. Methods for implementing this type of ministry in a congregation will be emphasized. Participants will develop strategies to help parents and grandparents as well as other adults pass along the faith at home and at church and leave equipped to nurture the faith of all ages by bringing the generations together at church and at home.

The first meeting of the class will be May 4-5, and the classes will meet online weekly through June 1. There is a cost for both a credit and an audit. Limited scholarships are available. Students will participate in the Leadership Continuing Education Event for the first class meeting.

The Leadership Continuing Education Event will be held May 4 (1-9 p.m.) and May 5 (8:30 a.m.-noon) at the Chamberlain United Church of Christ, Chamberlain.

The Leadership Continuing Education Event will focus on leadership in Intergenerational Ministries and how to create an intergenerational perspective in a congregation. Models of intergenerational ministry and examples from the personal experience of the presenter as a congregational religious educator will be provided. There is a cost to attend just the Leadership Continuing Education Event. Costs include dinner on Friday, continental breakfast on Saturday, instruction and materials.

Both the Course and the Event will be coordinated by the Rev. Dr. Anita Bradshaw, who also serves as the director for Eden's Judiciary Based Education initiatives, including its partnership in the Yankton College Pastoral Theology program. Dr. Bradshaw has served local congregations as well as faculty at a number of colleges and seminaries.

For more information on the courses or the leadership event, contact the Rev. Dr. Bradshaw at 612-791-8217.

Calvary Baptist Church Is Offering Summer Care

Calvary Baptist Church has announced the opening of Calvary Kids Club (CKC), a summer day care for kids in and around the Yankton area.

Calvary Kids Club is a Christ orientated summer care program for kids ranging in age from those who are entering Kindergarten to those entering the 6th grade. The club will be open from 7 a.m. to 6 p.m. weekdays. (The club will be closed on Memorial Day and July 4.)

Included in the full-time cost are two snacks and a noon meal catered by HyVee. The half-time cost includes one snack and noon meal. Children may attend on an everyday basis, or for just two or three days per week.

Calvary Kids Club will stress having fun while participating in projects to serve others. We will work on academic skills and learning new material. Throughout all of these activities will be an emphasis on the Word of God and praising our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

The weekly schedule includes:

- Monday — Make A Difference Day: Serving others in the Lord's name. Projects and activities to help others in and around our community.

- Tuesday and Thursday — Crafty Splashy Day: Craft fun in the morning and a trip to the pool in the afternoon. (Families need to buy a pool pass for their child at Memorial Park Pool)

- Wednesday — Worship Day: A short worship service at 9 a.m. each Wednesday in which we sing, read and listen to the stories of the Bible. Families are invited to attend any of the services.

- Friday — Field Trip Day: Travel both locally and regionally on some educational and fun trips. Children will be bused on our church bus by a qualified bus driver.

CKC will also be transporting the kids to swimming lessons at the Memorial Park pool every morning from June 4-15. There is a fee payable to the Yankton Park and Rec. Money and registrations are due to the church by May 15.

Calvary Kids Club applications can be picked up at Calvary Baptist Church at 2407 Broadway. The application fee includes a T-shirt for your child.

The staff is highly qualified. Many are educators and paraprofessionals in the Yankton area.

Children are admitted on a first-come basis with a total of 40 children enrolled.

Children will be admitted on a two-week trial basis.

For questions or information, pick up a packet at Calvary Baptist Church or contact Don Campbell, director, or Laurie Hanson, program director, at 665-5594.
