Businesses Warned Of Labor Law Poster Scams

PIERRE — Attorney General Marty Jackley and the South Dakota Department of Labor and Regulation (DLR) are warning businesses to beware of poster scams from companies selling various federal agency postings. Such companies often use scare tactics about potential fines and penalties.

Victims of these poster scams should contact the Attorney General's Consumer Protection Division at 1-800-300-1986 with information or to file a complaint. There are also two state posting requirements. The Division of Unemployment Insurance requires a posting, which can be downloaded at http://dlr.sd.gov/employerserv/postingrequirements.aspx.

ON THIS DATE

75 YEARS AGO Monday, April 26, 1937 Two railroad men were injured in a train wreck involving two eastbound North Western passenger trains and a gas-electric motor coach in a blinding snowstorm about 3 miles east of DeSmet Sunday morning about 9:30. Emergency repair crews tackled the problem of restoring broken and crippled wire communications in eastern South Dakota today while rising temperatures presaged early clearance of blocked highways which were choked by snow following the worst spring snowstorm in the state in the past 20 years.
