Doane Football Player Dies After Fall

CRETE, Neb. (AP) — Authorities say a Doane College football player has died after falling out of a pickup truck near campus in south-

Police say 20-year-old Cody Fanning was riding in the back of the truck around 3 a.m. Wednesday when the driver turned. Fanning fell out, striking his head on the street. He died at a hospital.

Crete Police Chief Steve Henzel says the driver, 21-year-old Cody Barnes, was arrested on suspicion of drunken driving and released on bond. Prosecutors will determine whether to file charges.

The school listed Fanning and Barnes as football players. In a message on its website, the college said it was grieving Fanning's death and confirmed accident details. Five other people also were in the truck.

The story was first reported by the Lincoln Journal Star.

Draft From Page 7A with the Vikings also getting and before the Vikings took tackle Matt Kalil, Florida neighbors Tampa Bay and Jacksonville swung Cleveland coach Pat Shurmur said the Browns were convinced a team would leapfrog them to take

Richardson, so they pulled the trig-fourth, fifth and seventh rounders.

After the Browns went for Alabama running back Trent Richardson, ger on the 4-for-1 trade. "Unfortunately we had to make a little trade to secure the pick,' Shurmur said. "We knew as we went through the process that he was our guy and so we did what we had to do to secure it. We had pretty good knowledge that there were teams behind that wanted him as well, so we gave up a couple of picks to make sure we got

Trent. The Jaguars moved up to No. 5 from No. 7 and grabbed wide receiver Justin Blackmon. The Buccaneers, at No. 7, chose Alabama safety Mark Barron, and also acquired the Jaguars' fourth-round him. We're thrilled a bunch about

The St. Louis Rams made a second trade of their first-round pick. The Rams traded away the No. 2 overall pick to the Washington Redskins last month, and were set to select sixth. But Dallas traded its No. 14 choice and a secondrounder to the Rams and grabbed LSU cornerback Morris Claiborne ciate head basketball coach.

with No. 6. The Cowboys came into the draft desperate for defensive playmakers, and Claiborne is considered by most as the best cornerback available. Claiborne led LSU with six interceptions last season, won the Jim Thorpe Award as the nation's top defensive back, and averaged 25 yards per kickoff return. Tampa Bay general manager Mark Dominik said he wanted Barron all along at No. 5, but felt he could deal down and still get the All-American who was a vital cog in the nation's best defense last sea-

Track & Field Roundup: Area Athletes Shine At Norfolk Classic

.431 18 1/2 .400 20 1/2

NORFOLK, Neb. — It was all about individual and relay performances at the annual Norfolk Classic at Johnny Carson Field on Thursday in Norfolk. No team scores were kept, meaning athletes could focus on times and places rather than accumulating points. Numerous local athletes had outstanding performances, none more so than Norfolk's Kegan Ehlers. Ehlers won both the 100 and 200 meter dashes. Ehlers had three other teammates that won individual titles on the boys' side. Patrick Meuret (400), Tim Metcalf (1600), and

Tremain Monroe (high jump) all won their respective events.

Tom Peitz of Crofton also won multiple events. The Warrior thrower claimed both the shot put and discus titles. Bloomfield's Austin Hamm, last year's Nebraska Class D 3200 state champion, ran nearly 20 seconds faster than his nearest competitor to claim the 3200 individual title. On the girls' side, Crofton saw three individuals as well as the 1600 meter relay team claim titles. Danielle Riesberg (400), Allison Arens (1600), and Maria Wortmann (shot put) all claimed victories for the Warriors. Taylor Thompson (high jump) and Taleah Williams (long jump)

gave Norfolk a pair of jump titles. Amy Miller ran a great 800 to give Norfolk Catholic an individual title while Hartington's Michaela Dendinger easily won the discus competition by over three feet. GIRLS' DIVISION
