"Chase is a coach's dream," Brandon Valley coach Brent Deckert said. "Chase is the ultimate competitor and there isn't a time a time he's set foot on the floor and thought he was going to lose a game, even dating back to when he was in fourth grade. We've been around much better players but I don't know if you'll ever be around a better kid."

Brookings guard Tyler Nagy was the lone junior on the first team and he earned his honor through averaging 13.9 points a Governors. Nagy also facilitated the Bobcats' offensive well by accumulating five or more assists in seven games this season.

Tyler was our floor leader and one of the best offensive threats at the AA level," Brookings coach Travis Engebretson said. "Tyler spent countless hours in the gym working on his game and the work really paid off. He will be one of the top players in AA basketball

Heiser's deadly scoring gave him his second consecutive firstteam nod. The senior led the Arrows with 20.7 points a game. Heiser, who plans to play basketball at Northern State University, also pulled down 4.8 rebounds and

'Tanner was a three-year guy for us and he did a ton of things for us on both sides of the floor," Watertown coach Brian Norberg said. "He wasn't only a great scorer and he was also a great defender. You don't always get kids like Tanner in a program. He was not only our

'We asked Nermin and Adam to sacrifice parts of their game to make the team better," Sioux Falls Lincoln coach Jeff Halseth said. These two did just that, they passed up some shots they normally take and became very teamoriented towards tournament time. That made us very successful and they were great floor generals for Three decades after his father, Troy, was selected to the all-state team during his senior campaign in Pierre, Schaefer continued his family's legacy with his second-team honor. Schaefer was his team's lone player with varsity experience, but he led the Raiders to a state tournament berth with 19.6 points a game to go along with four rebounds a contest. Steven is very deserving of this," Rapid City Stevens coach Derris Buus said. "He really did a nice job of trusting his teammate as the season went on. Steven was our only player returning with varsity experience but he did a great job of being a good teammate and doing what's best for the team."

Schaefer is one of two junior selected to the second team with Huron's Justin Decker being the other. The Tigers' big man averaged 15.6 points and 6.3 rebounds a game. Decker also shot an impressive 48 percent from the floor.

"Justin has worked hard to improve his individual skills and I think he's turned into a very good player," Huron coach Tim Buddenhagen said. "He's progressed a lot and it's very encouraging and exciting for us.

The second team was rounded out by Sioux Falls O'Gorman senior Kyle Scholten. Scholten was a lethal scorer for the nights in 2012, averaging 15.8 points a contest while shooting 40 percent from beyond the arc. Scholten will continue his career at Briar Cliff University next year.

"Kyle certainly had a good year scoring for the Knights this year," Sioux Falls O'Gorman coach Derek Robey said. "He did it with the other team's best defender on him and he still ended the year tied for 25th in our single-season scoring record book."
