Hispanic And Women Farmers And Ranchers Claims Must Be Filed By May 1

WASHINGTON — Agriculture Secretary Tom Vilsack has announced the extension of the voluntary claims process for Hispanic and women farmers and ranchers who allege discrimination by the USDA in past decades. All claims must now be filed by May 1, 2013.

"Hispanic and women farmers who believe they have faced discriminatory practices in the past from the USDA have additional time to file a claim in order to have a chance to receive a cash payment or loan forgiveness," said Secretary Vilsack. "USDA urges potential claimants to contact the Claims Administrator for information and to file their claim packages on or before May 1, 2013."

The process offers a voluntary alternative to litigation for each Hispanic or female farmer and rancher who can prove that USDA denied his or her application for loan or loan servicing assistance for discriminatory reasons for certain time periods between 1981 and 2000.

As announced in February 2011, the voluntary claims process will make available at least $1.33 billion for cash awards and tax relief payments, plus up to $160 million in farm debt relief, to eligible Hispanic and women farmers and ranchers. There are no filing fees to participate in the program.

Call center representatives can be reached at 1-888-508-4429. Claimants may register for a claims package (by calling the number or visiting the website) or may download the forms from the website. All those interested in learning more or receiving information about the claims process and claims packages are encouraged to visit the website at any time or to contact the call center telephone number Monday through Friday 9 a.m. to 8 p.m. Eastern Time.

Claim packages and other documentation may be mailed to Hispanic and Women Farmers and Ranchers Claims Administrator, PO Box 4540, Portland, OR 97208-4540. Claim packages and other documentation may also be emailed to claims@hwfr.org. Claimants may also fax claims packages and other documentation to (855) 626-8343. Completed forms and documentation must be received no later than 11:59 p.m. PDT on May 1, 2013.

Once a claim is submitted to the Claims Administrator, the Claims Administrator will determine if it is timely and complete. If it is, the claim will move to the Claims Adjudicator for a determination on the merits of the claim. USDA may submit evidence to the Claims Adjudicator regarding the claim. If a claim is deemed incomplete, a claimant will be notified by the Claims Administrator and given the opportunity to provide additional information within a certain timeframe. Claimants may check the status of their claims on the claims website: www.farmerclaims.gov.

Independent companies will administer the claims process and adjudicate the claims. Although there are no filing fees to participate and a lawyer is not required to participate in the claims process, persons seeking legal advice may contact a lawyer or other legal services provider.

- The changing of the "stop" signs within the city limits from Fifth to Fourth street, the latter the new routing of state trunk highway No. 50, through town, has been completed and is causing some confusion, not only with local drivers but also with those who have been accustomed to following Fifth as the arterial highway - truckers and the like.
- Speaking for Harold E. Edmunds, who has been asked to give an historical sketch of his grandfather, Governor Newton Edmunds, on the D.A.R. radio program Sunday evening, Dr. G. W. Nash introduced in a half hour talk the characters of the Judge Bartlett Tripp, W. H. H. Beadle and Dr. Joseph Ward as associates of Governor Edmunds.

- "Bugs" Bunny Vetter will observe his sixth birthday anniversary Easter Sunday. He has become a beautiful white, lovable rabbit and is an armful for even an adult to carry. It was decided to give the kiddies at the Tripp school a treat Wednesday so Mrs. Ray Vetter and MaeBelle Schmidt gave "Bugs" a visit to the school.
- The Rev. Fred Kirschenmann, associate professor of religion and dean of students at Yankton college, has been notified that he has been nominated a University Fellow in the divinity school of the University of Chicago for the 1963-64 academic year.

25 YEARS AGO

Wednesday, April 13, 1988

- The Yankton County commission was asked to consider making a contribution to help fund the centennial celebration being planned by the Yankton Centennial Committee. Jim Abbott, representing the local centennial committee, asked the commissioners to match the contribution made by the city of Yankton. The city has contributed $7,500 in 1988 and is scheduled to contribute another $7,500 in 1989, Abbott said.
- The Yankton Senior High School, 2000 Mulberry Street, was evacuated this morning after officials received a bomb threat. The school was evacuated and searched but no bomb was found.

The family of Rita Arens would like to express our sincere gratitude to everyone involved with her care over the past months. We didn't want to see her go, but we find peace in knowing she is at home with Dad.

We would especially like to acknowledge the following: The staff at Avera Sacred Heart Hospital, for the wonderful care.

To the staff at the Golden Living Center in Hartington, words cannot express the appreciation for the loving care and concern for our Mom and for us, while she was in your care. So much of what you did was above and beyond, and it will never be forgotten. You are true angels on earth!

Thanks to those who eased our sorrow - including the compassion shown by Wintz and Ray Funeral Home, Fr. David Fulton, Fr. Timothy Lange, Deacon Rod Wiebelhaus, and the St. Joseph Choir for a beautiful service, the pallbearers and the St. Joseph Ladies Guild for the luncheon served.

A special thank you to all neighbors, family and friends for the phone calls, food, flowers, memorials, masses, and for just being there to be our support in our moment of need. All these acts of kindness will never be forgotten and will live on with the memory of our Mother.

Thank you and God Bless You
