

UNCONTROLLED BURN

COURTESY PHOTO

The Yankton Fire Department responded to a controlled burn Tuesday afternoon along SW Jim River Road that had gotten out of hand. Deputy Fire Chief Larry Nickles said that the wind came up unexpectedly and quickly spread the blaze. An area roughly a quarter-mile by an eighth of a mile was burned, but only grass and trees were damaged. Firefighters were on scene for approximately an hour.

Hunhoff Receives 2012 Friend Of Education Award

PIERRE — The South Dakota Education Association (SDEA) has named Yankton's State Representative Bernie Hunhoff as the 2012 Friend of Education. Hunhoff received the award at the annual SDEA/NEA Representative Assembly in Pierre this past weekend. Hunhoff was nominated by Paula Weydert, president of the Yankton Education Association.

SDEA/NEA's Friend of Education Award is given to a person or organization that has made a significant contribution on a statewide basis toward achieving a quality public education for all students.

"I am honored to present this year's Friend of Education Award to Representative Hunhoff," said SDEA/NEA President Sandy Arsenault. "Bernie's willingness to put politics aside and work with the majority party to make education a cornerstone of building South Dakota's economy truly demonstrates his commitment to South Dakota students. He truly believes in offering every child a great public education."

Hunhoff was nominated by Yankton Education Association President Paula Weydert who said she nominated the Yankton Representative because he has advocated for teachers and their student relentlessly for many years. "Representative Hunhoff is a man of integrity, humility and wisdom," stated Weydert. "Bernie travels the entire state asking questions, talking to people, researching, and taking photos. Because of his journeys, Bernie has a very informed perspective."

Hunhoff is a Yankton native serving his third term as the Minority Leader in the State House of Representatives. He was instrumental in ensuring that education benefited from a bi-partisan economic development plan known as the Build South Dakota Fund.

SDEA is South Dakota's largest education professionals' organization, representing more than 7,000 elementary and secondary teachers, higher education faculty, education support professionals, retired educators and students preparing to become teachers.

OBITUARIES

Walter Herrboldt

Walter Herrboldt, 90, of Menno passed away on Sunday, April 14, 2013 at the Menno-Olivet Care Center, Menno.

Funeral services will be 10:30 a.m. Thursday, April 18, 2013 at Salem Reformed Church, Menno, with Rev. Michael Hecht officiating. Burial will be in the Menno Cemetery.

Visitation will be from 5-7 p.m., Wednesday, April 17, 2013 with a Prayer Service at 7 p.m. at the Aisenbrey-Opsahl-Kostel Memorial Chapel, Menno. Visitations will resume one hour prior to the service at the church.

Walter was born on November 26, 1922 on the Herrboldt family farm east of Menno to Emil and Emma (Ulmer) Herrboldt. He was baptized and confirmed at the former Ebenezer Reformed Church of rural Menno. He attended the Handel School near his childhood home. After the Ebenezer Reformed Church congregation merged with Salem Reformed, he served as a deacon and participated in various building and maintenance projects.

On August 25, 1944 he married Idella Quast of Menno and five Walter was diagnosed with bone cancer of the mouth and underwent surgery at Mayo Clinic in Rochester, MN. He survived the cancer and was able to continue his beloved occupation of farming. In later years, he partnered with his son Lee, who eventually took over operation of the family farm.

Walter took pleasure in his grandchildren, great-grandchildren, and in attending community sporting events. He also enjoyed several trips with Idella seeing and experiencing many different parts of the country. Preceding Walter in death were his parents, Emil (1965) and Emma (1961); brothers Albert (Esther) and Clarence Herrboldt; brothers-in-law, Gilbert (Gert), Ray Quast, and Oliver Chance.

In addition to his wife Idella, began farming with his father-in-law, Christ Quast. In 1948 Walter and Idella moved to the Quast Homestead Farm where they lived until moving to Menno in 1982. At the age of twenty-surviving family members are his son, Lee and wife Dianne, their children Jason (Angela) of Sioux Falls with sons Isaac, Everett and Westin; Kimberly (Jeremy) Berger of Columbia, MO and their son Mason; and Brad (Krissy) of Omaha; his daughter Nancy and husband Greg Huffman of Warren, RI and their sons Brian of Providence RI, and Mike with son Michael of Pawtucket, RI. Also surviving are Walter's brother Clifford (Lavonne) Herrboldt and his sister Inez (Elmer) Winckler of Menno; sisters-in-law Irene Quast and Verlina Herrboldt, all of Menno along with many nieces and nephews and their families.

In lieu of flowers, the family wishes for memorials be directed to the Menno-Olivet Care Center, 402 South Pine Street, Menno, SD 57045.

Anna Redman

Anna K. Redman, 98, of Menno, passed away Sunday, April 14, 2013 at the Menno-Olivet Care Center, Menno.

Funeral Services will be 10 a.m., Saturday, April 20, 2013 at Grace Lutheran Church, Menno with Rev. Theresa Jacobson officiating. Burial will be in the Menno Cemetery.

Visitations will be from 7-9 p.m., Friday, April 19, 2013 at the Aisenbrey-Opsahl-Kostel Memorial Chapel, Menno. Visitations will resume one hour prior to the service at the church.

Anna Katharina Zeeb was born January 25, 1915, on a farm nine and one-half miles southeast of Freeman to Henry and Martha (Knodel) Zeeb. She was baptized on April 15 of the same year in Bethlehem Reformed Church at Freeman. When Anna was three, the family moved to a farm five and one-half miles southwest of Menno where she grew up. She was the oldest of five children.

She attended Eastview School where she graduated from eighth grade. When she was 14, she was confirmed in Salem Reformed Church in Menno by Rev. John Bodenman. On September 14, 1937, she and Herman Redman were married. They lived on the Redman farm 11 miles southeast of Menno for 52 years. After the death of Herman in 1989, she moved into Menno where she lived until her death. Her last years were spent in the Menno-Olivet Care Center. She was a member of Grace Lutheran Church.

Redman

Grateful for having shared her life are two daughters: Karen Rames and husband, Robert of Hickory Hills, IL and Renee Huenemann and husband, Mark of Surprise, AZ; four grandchildren: Kristine (Glenn) Jones of Naperville, IL, Katherine (Corey) Herrboldt of Bolingbrook, IL, Tim (Kathi) Huenemann of Racine, WI; six great-grandchildren: Bradley and Erica Jones, Brooke and Bailey Herrboldt, and Grace and William Huenemann; three sisters-in-law: Irene Zeeb, Evelyn Zeeb, and Erna Zeeb; several nieces and nephews; and special family friend, Morna Anderson.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Herman; parents, Henry and Martha Zeeb, sister, Ardina Mettler and husband, Roland; brothers: Peter, Harold, and Ray Zeeb; and brother-in-law and sister-in-law, Oliver and Anna M. Redman.

Until recent years when her health did not allow, she enjoyed visiting, reading, needlework, and helping others. She was a contented person and gratefully and gracefully accepted all of life's stages.

Memorials may be directed to the Menno-Olivet Care Center, 402 South Pine Street, Menno, SD 57045 or Grace Lutheran Church, 511 South Pine Street, Menno, SD 57045.

Darrell Anderson

Darrell Lawrence Anderson passed away peacefully on Sunday, April 14, 2013 in Avera Sacred Heart Hospital, surrounded by his loving wife of 58 years, Mary Ann, their children and spouses, and his grandchildren.

Mass of Christian Burial will be 10:30 a.m., Friday, April 19, 2013 at Sacred Heart Catholic Church, Yankton, with Rev. Mark Lichter officiating. Burial will be in the Garden of Memories.

Visitations will begin at 5 p.m., Thursday, at the Opsahl-Kostel Funeral Home & Crematory, Yankton, with a rosary at 7 p.m. followed by a video tribute and Scripture service at 7:30 p.m. Visitations will resume prior to the service at the church.

Darrell was born in Yankton on November 5, 1928 to Imer E. and Katherine (Keller) Anderson. He lived in Fairfax, SD and moved to Yankton with his family in 1930. He attended Sacred Heart School and Yankton High School, and graduated in 1946. He then attended Yankton College, where he graduated with a degree in business in 1950.

Anderson

Also in 1950, he was called into the service of his country with the SD National Guard, Company C 196th Infantry Regiment, during the Korean Conflict. He served a tour of duty in Alaska, and was honorably discharged in 1953. He eloped with Mary Ann Boyles to Hastings, NE where they were married on June 15, 1954.

During his career, Darrell was a partner with his brother, Donald E. Anderson, in the Pure Ice Company (The Ice House), Anderson Liquors (the Pub), and Anderson Rentals. He retired in 1993. Darrell had a deep faith and was a lifetime member of Sacred Heart Parish. He was also a 62 year member of the Elks Lodge, and a member of the Moose Lodge. Darrell loved sports, by participating when he was younger, and then later by officiating. He was a football and basketball referee for many years, and he was a charter member of the SD Umpire Association.

One of Darrell's great joys was attending school reunions to see old friends; he attended Sacred Heart school and high school reunions well into his 80's. In July 2012, he was greatly honored to be named Mr. Greyhound at the Yankton College All-Class Reunion. He also loved attending reunions of his National Guard unit; in 2002 he helped to plan and organize the Guard reunion which was held in Yankton.

Darrell loved playing cards, especially with his monthly poker club which met regularly up until his final illness, and bowling. He especially loved to see and visit with family and friends near and far - he looked forward to family reunions, get togethers of any kind, and local visits. Darrell often said how much he, and his father before him, loved Yankton - he thought it was the best place in the world to live. We know that was because of his family and his dear friends.

In addition to Mary Ann, Darrell is survived by his children, grandchildren and a new great grandson:

Michael (Connie) Anderson of Metamora, IL, Joshua, Kayleigh and Keller; Patrick (Valerie) Anderson of Vermillion, Jordan, Ashley, Greg, Jade, Nicholas and Maddox; Jane (Donald) Munger of West Salem, WI, Hannah, Laura and Ian; and Christopher (Alejandro Aristizabal) Anderson of Washington, DC. He is also survived by his brother Richard (Christine) Anderson of Yankton, and his sister Elaine (Neil) Jones of Littleton, CO.

He was preceded in death by his parents and his brother Donald.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to: Special Olympics - Yankton Area, P. O. Box 864, Yankton, SD 57078, and Sacred Heart Elementary School, 509 Capital Street, Yankton, SD 57078.
