Area Schools Announce Schedule Updates

Area schools are continuing to announce schedule changes due to last week's storms and this week's expected poor weather conditions

To report a schedule change to the Press & Dakotan. athletic directors and coaches are asked to contact the P&D at sports@yankton.net, by fax at 1-605-665-1721 or by phone at 1-605-665-7811. The Yankton club high school baseball team postponed Thursday's doubleheader with Brandon Valley. No makeup date has been announced.

- The Avon Invitational track and field meet, which was scheduled to be held April 12 and was postponed, has now been canceled. It will not be rescheduled.

 Avon also canceled its junior high track and field meet, scheduled for Thursday.

 The Wayne State vs. Winona State baseball games scheduled for today (Wednesday) in Wayne, Neb., have been canceled due to the weather in the forecast. The games will not be made up as per conference rules. Here are other schedule changes that were reported to the P&D for events on Tuesday or later this week. Tuesday's South Dakota-Nebraska Challenge track and field meet was canceled. The 2014 meet will be held Tuesday's O'Neill Invitational track and field meet was canceled. The women's tennis match between South Dakota and Sioux Falls, scheduled for Tuesday, was canceled to allow USF to make up a conference match.

 Thursday's Freeman Flyer Invitational track and field meet has been canceled. - The Jim Fleveras Relays track and field meet, scheduled for Saturday in Tyndall, will have a late start.

Cheer And Dance Inv. In 2014 SIOUX CITY, Iowa — The Great Plains Athletic Conference (GPAC) is pleased to announce that beginning in February of 2014 the conference will conduct a GPAC Cheer and Dance Invitational The inaugural invitational is tentatively scheduled for Saturday, February 8, 2014, at Midland University in Fremont Nebraska "I am very excited to announce that we are going to offer Cheer and Dance as an invitational event in the GPAC," said GPAC Commissioner Corey Westra. "Cheer and Dance is really taking off as an emerging sport in the NAIA and it's exciting for our conference to offer this forward the GPAC All-Sports Trophy. Wrestling started in the GPAC as an invitational sport until being offered officially as a championship sport in 2006-07.

Currently the GPAC offers 19 intercollegiate championship sports among the 11 members of the conference.

mal competition to our member schools."

Details of the 2014 GPAC Cheer and Dance Invitational will be announced this fall. An invitational sport in the conference means that the results will not count to-

April 26, at the Corn Palace. Individual tickets and tables are available. Both corporate and regular tables seat eight. Corporate tables are located in the front row closest to the stage, and will get the opportunity to talk with Anderson after the show. The Tiger women's basketball team will also serve appetizers to those at corporate tables.

Anderson is a family-friendly comedian who is popular with both the television audience and the crowds of Las Vegas. He was the host of Family Feud from 1999-2002. and currently appears in the ABC reality TV series Splash. He recently appeared on The Tonight Show with Jay Leno, and just released his latest book, The F Word: How to Survive Your Family. Tickets are available by calling the Corn Palace box office at 605-996-8430 or ordering online at www.cornpalace.com. Tickets can also be purchased by contacting DWU women's basketball coach Jason Christensen at jachrist@dwu.edu or 605-995-2175.

Super Voice Gone: Pat Summerall Dead At 82

was the calm alongside John Madden's storm. Over four decades, Summerall's deep, resonant voice described some of the biggest games in America. Simple, spare, he delivered the details on 16 Super Bowls, the Masters and the U.S. Open tennis tournament with a simple, understated style that was the perfect complement for the 'booms!" and "bangs!" of Madden, his partner for half of the NFL speaking on behalf of Summerall's wife, Cheri. "He was an extraordinary man and a wonderful father," said Susie Wiles, his daughter. "I know he will

His final play-by-play words beside Madden were succinct, of course, as he called the game-ending field goal of the Super Bowl for Fox on Feb. 3, 2002, when New England beat St. Louis 20-17. "It's right down the pipe. Adam Vinatieri. No time on the clock.

And the Patriots have won Super

At the end of their final broadcast together, Madden described Summerall as "a treasure" and the "spirit of the National Football League" in a tribute to the partner that complemented the boisterous former Oakland Raiders coach so

"You are what the NFL is all about, what pro football is all about, and more important, what a man is all about and what a gentleman is all about," Madden said. As former teammate and broadcaster Frank Gifford put it in an accompanying video tribute: 'America is very comfortable with

Summerall played 10 NFL seasons (1952-61) with the Chicago

Cardinals and New York Giants, but it was in his second career that he became a voice familiar to generations of sports fans, not only those of the NFL. "Pat was a friend of nearly 40 years," CBS Sports broadcaster Verne Lundquist said. "He was a master of restraint in his commentary, an example for all of us. He was also one of the great story-tennis. When CBS lost its NFL deal after the 1993 season, Summerall switched to Fox to keep calling NFL games with Madden. He had hoped to keep working with CBS for other events like the Masters, but network executives saw it otherwise. At the time, CBS Sports anchor Jim Nantz said he was "very saddened" that Summerall didn't get to leave CBS under his own terms.

"He is CBS Sports. I always thought he could work here until he was 75 or 80 years old," Nantz told The Philadelphia Daily News then. "He's been a much larger influence on my career than I think he realizes. There will be a piece of Pat Summerall on the air as long as I do golf for this network." A recovering alcoholic, Summerall had a liver transplant in April 2004. The lifesaving surgery sional successes. Long before broadcasting Super Bowl games, 16 for television and 10 more for radio — in fact, before there was even a Super Bowl -Summerall played a role in what is known in football circles as "The Greatest Game Ever Played," the 1958 NFL championship.
