Scotland Man To Appeal Murder Conviction

SCOTLAND (AP) — A South Dakota man sentenced to life in prison for causing the death of his infant son plans to appeal his conviction on second-degree murder and aggravated assault convictions. The Daily Republic newspaper reports that the attorney for 39-year-old Chris Miller, of the town of Scotland, has notified the state Supreme Court of his intentions. Court documents containing arguments for the appeal likely will be due next month. A Turner County jury on Jan. 30 convicted Miller in the March 2011 death of 4-month-old Jacob Miller, who authorities said suffered a severe skull fracture and bleeding on the brain.

Renowned Chemist To Present Lecture At USD

VERMILLION — Omar M. Yaghi, Ph.D., professor of chemistry at the University of California-Berkeley and the director for the Molecular Foundry at the Lawrence Berkeley National Laboratory, will deliver the 2013 Haines Lecture, "Porous Crystals for Clean Energy," at the University of South Dakota at 7 p.m. on Monday, April 22, at Churchill-Haines 118. Yaghi, who has been on the faculties of Arizona State University, the University of Michigan and UCLA, has published more than 130 papers that have received more than 180 citations per paper. He is listed as among the top two most highly cited chemists worldwide. Yaghi's work encompasses the synthesis, structure and properties of inorganic compounds and the design and construction of new crystalline materials. He received his Ph.D. from the University of Illinois-Urbana, and was a National Science Foundation Postdoctoral Fellow at Harvard University. The Haines Lecture is sponsored by the USD Chemistry Department and was established in 1956 in honor of Arthur Lee Haines, a member of the USD Chemistry Department for 71 years. This event, which is free and open to the public, is co-sponsored by the Dr. Charles R. Estee Fund. For more information, please contact the USD Chemistry Department at (605) 677-5487.

USD To Host Viewing Of 'Switch' Monday

VERMILLION — The documentary "Switch" will be shown at the University of South Dakota, Akeley-Lawrence Science Center (Room 125) at 7 p.m. Monday, April 22. "In 'Switch,' energy visionary Dr. Scott Tinker travels the world, exploring leading energy sites from coal to solar, oil to biofuels, most of them highly restricted and never before seen on film. He seeks the truth from the international leaders of government, industry and academia. In the end, he cuts through the confusion to discover a path to our energy future as surprising as it is practical." "Switch" will screen at 250 universities across the country as part of the GSA Switch Energy Awareness & Efficiency Program, which also includes a campus ambassador program and efficiency drive.

Watershed Advisory Task Force To Meet Monday

PIERRE — The Regional Watershed Advisory Task Force, created by the 2012 Legislature, will hold its first meeting of the 2013 Interim on Monday, April 22, at the Ramada Inn and Suites Conference Center in Mitchell, South Dakota. The meeting will begin at 9 a.m. (CT). The task force was created to conduct studies and evaluations on drainage, watersheds, flood control, erosion, and related issues, as well as studies of alternative organizational structures and entities to address such issues. The task force will operate until January 2015.

At the April 22 meeting, the task force will hear presentations by Dr. Dennis Todey, state climatologist, South Dakota State University; Dr. Chris Hay, Agricultural and Biosystems Engineering, South Dakota State University; Clark Moeckly, Upper Crow Creek Watershed District; and Jeff Zimprich of the Natural Resources Conservation Service. In addition, the task force will hear presentations by Brown, McCook, Kingsbury and Yankton counties on county experiences with drainage regulation and drainage issues. An opportunity for public testimony will be provided, and the public is urged to attend. The Regional Watershed Advisory Task Force consists of 14 members: Rep. Brian Gosch, Chair (R-Rapid City); Sen. Mike Vehle, Vice Chair (R-Mitchell); Sens. Jason Frerichs (D-Wilmot), Tom Jones (D-Viborg), and Russell Olson (R-Wentworth); Reps. Dennis Feickert (D-Aberdeen), Spencer Hawley (D-Brookings), and Leslie Heinemann (R-Flandreau); and Dennis Duncan (Parker), Mike Jaspers (Sioux Falls), Rick Sommers (Aberdeen), Paul Symens (Amherst), George Vandel (Pierre), and Kim Vanneman (Ideal).

In Memory of our Mother, Grandmother, and Wife

For all the times you kissed our owies
We shared you with Hawaii and Maui
For every night you tucked us into bed
We knew very well you put us ahead

The wonderful times we shared
Showed us all you cared
Your life was shortened by the grace of God
He needed you there to do an important job

The ranch has found routine by day
Still watching you with every sun ray
The flowers bloom as if you were there
Although there are times he pulls his hair

Your bundles of joy are moving out
Starting new lives with no doubt
Please keep watch from above
We love you with our own special love

Thank you MOM!!

• Discussion of the need of a permanent stage for the city auditorium was brought up at a meeting of the board of city commissioners held last night when Wm. J. Fantle and Bert Johnson, president of the Chamber of Commerce, appeared and suggested to the board that a stage built in sections should be provided to take care of the several conventions and other meetings scheduled for this spring and summer and for which a stage will be needed.
• Renewed appeals for support by local citizens, through the purchase of tickets for the entire event, and through listing rooms available, were made today by committees engaged in final preparations for the state high school music contest which will open here Thursday morning, bringing around 4,000 visitors to the city.
