MEAD UPDATE

PHOTO: DAKOTA TERRITORIAL MUSEUM

The weather this winter has been crazy and really played a role in the rehabilitation of the Mead Building. But, the roof is done and plans are in the works to begin on Phase II — The Lead Project — very soon. This project will include the encapsulation of the lead paint and the restoration of the existing windows. So, if you have not purchased a window you better hurry. It is our goal to have them all sold by April 30. We currently have less than 75 windows left in varying price ranges. Anyone interested in working with our collection is encouraged to participate in the free Care of Collection all-day workshops May 17-18 at the Dakota Territorial Museum. To register, please contact the Dakota Territorial Museum at 610 Summit Street in Westside Park, or call 665-3898.
