KNOX CO. SHERIFF'S REPORT

• On the weekend of March 8, 2014, at a residence 1 mile west of Creighton on Highway 59, a theft occurred. Several fishing poles, an ice auger, a depth finder with cameras and a tackle box filled with various weights, lures and other artificial bait was stolen. The estimated loss is $3,000.

Anybody with any information is asked to contact the Knox County Sheriff's Office or your local Law Enforcement Agency.

• On March 28, 2014, at about 7:28 a.m., a report was received of a one vehicle accident 1 1/2 miles east of the 512th Ave. and 871st Rd. intersection. Upon investigating the accident, it was determined that the vehicle was traveling east when it went into the south ditch, went through a fence and broke four (4) wood fence posts. The vehicle then crossed the road and went into the north ditch where it became stuck in a snow bank. The male driver of the vehicle contacted the property owner and received a ride to Orchard, Neb. The vehicle involved was a 2001 Ford Taurus owned by Amanda Makovicka of Orchard. The vehicle was insured under Shawn Prochaska's name. The vehicle received minimal damage. The accident is still under investigation.

- Yankton, along with the remainder of the nation, scans the weather reports and the skies trying to gauge the weather man's disposition and just what formula he is mixing up for tomorrow — Easter. For Easter is not only noted for eggs and bunnies, but for hats and it is the latter, and the entire Easter ensemble, that depends almost entirely upon the weather.
- J. C. Milne, director of the South Dakota Beet Growers' Association, has been calling on Yankton merchants and civic organizations in connection with a campaign to promote wider use and demand of U & I sugar, a South Dakota grown product. He indicates contacts have been arranged with Yankton College and the high school as well as service clubs in Yankton.
