man season and has helped Dell Rapids go 53-17 during the past three seasons. Hoglund was also named this season's Dakota XII Conference Most Valuable Player.

"Ty is an extremely athletic player who has worked very hard over the years to improve his basketball skills," Dell Rapids coach Jason Fersdahl said. "He absolutely loves basketball and is in the gym working on his game any chance he gets.

"He was a gym rat from the first time he picked up a basketball," Clark-Willow Lake coach Jerome Nesheim said about Jenkins. "He is a true competitor and did whatever it took to make himself and his team better.
