Johnson pitched six innings, striking out five, for the win. Cameron earned the save.

Yankton, 2-3, hosts Harrisburg in a doubleheader today (Monday). Start time is set for 5 p.m.

Tennis: Bucks Finish 1-1 At Rezatto Rumble

ABERDEEN – The Yankton Bucks went 1-1 on the final day of the Rezatto Rumble boys' tennis tournament, falling to Rapid City Stevens 9-0 and beating Milbank 9-0.

Against Stevens, the closest match came at flight three doubles, where Yankton's Nate List and Ethan Klimisch dropped a 10-5 tiebreaker for an 11-10 decision. Jason Shindler dropped an 11-9 decision to Stevens' Andy Guymon at flight two doubles.

"I thought that we competed well, but we know that we have a lot of work to do in the next few weeks," said Yankton head coach Matt Termansen. "We need to keep getting better every day, and keep improving. We are looking forward to being able to practice outside, and start working on the little details."

Against Milbank, Yankton won four matches by 10-1 scores: flights two (Shindler) and four (Ben Mooney) singles, and flights one (Luke and Hunter Rockne) and two (Shindler and Paul Fanta) doubles.

Yankton's Isaac Klimisch and Sam Mooney teamed up to earn the consolation title in the JV doubles tournament at the event, going 3-1 on the weekend.

Yankton, 2-2, travels to Sioux City North on Tuesday.

was in the pole vault. Freshman Jake David vaulted a career best height of 17-4 ½, a foot higher than his best mark this season. David's height placed him second in the competition and ranks 22nd in the nation.

With a second-place finish to former All-American Chad Wright, senior Cody Snyder (Lake Andes) had the top collegiate performance in the discus with a throw of 185-5. Snyder also fired the shot put 56-6.

To round out the men's top performances, sophomore Mach Dojok finished runner-up in the 800 meters and sophomore Tyler Frank took third in the high jump. Dojok clocked a time of 1:51.39 and Frank cleared 6-6 ½.
