Volunteers Sought For Missouri River Watershed Festival

Organizers wit the seventh annual Missouri River Watershed School Festival (MRWSF) are looking for volunteers. The event is set for Friday, May 1, at Riverside Park, in Yankton.

The MRWSF is an educational event open to students in grades 7-11. MRWSF provides hands-on learning opportunities with fast-paced presentations focusing on: changes in the river's ecosystem, endangered and invasive species, water cycles, boating safety, human impacts on and stewardship of the river plus more. Attached is a list of presentations that will be offered at the MRWSF. With the increased attendance, we are in need of more volunteers.

Students will attend seven of these opportunities, each one offering an enjoyable learning experience, which is where volunteers from your group come in.

The duties of the volunteers is very simple, leading a group of students from one presentation to the next, ensuring groups are at the correct locations at the correct times. Each volunteer is given a listing of the order in which that group is to follow, beginning with the first station to the last. Volunteers distribute snacks at the start of the fourth session.

Here is a tentative schedule for the MRWSF including starting and finishing times.

- Volunteers need to be at Riverside Park by 8:45 a.m. for an informational meeting. Volunteers are given their schedules to follow, assigned to groups and instructions.
- Students begin arriving around 9 a.m. and gather at the band shelter.
- 9:15 a.m. — Arrival (bathroom break, registration, etc.)
- 9:30-9:45 a.m. — Session One
- 9:50-10:05 a.m. — Session Two
- 10:10-10:25 a.m. — Session Three
- 10:30-10:45 a.m. — Session Four (Snacks will be served during this session)
- 10:50-11:05 a.m. — Session Five
- 11:10-11:25 a.m. — Session Six
- 11:30- 11:45 a.m. — Session Seven
- 11:50 a.m. — Depart

The MRWSF will conclude shortly before noon. Volunteers get the students back to the band shelter to depart at 11:55 a.m. and the volunteers are finished. At noon, everyone — presenters & volunteers are welcome to stay for a lunch.
