

OBITUARIES

Rosie Roegiers

Rosie Roegiers, of Burbank, South Dakota, died Friday, April 24th of injuries sustained in a car accident the previous day.

Rosellen Elaine Salter was born to Woodrow and Esther Salter in Burlington, Iowa on July 22, 1939. She grew up on a farm just outside Biggsville, Illinois with her three younger siblings, John Salter, Frank Salter, and Mary McAllister and their foster sister, Judi Kohrs. Rosie is survived by her husband, Dr. Charles L. Roegiers, their four children, Charles B. Roegiers, Leigh Ann Dilley, Dawn Martinez, and Douglas Roegiers. Her legacy also includes nine grandchildren and countless others she often referred to as "family not related by blood."

The Roegiers family invites you to come share your memories and "Celebrate Rosie" at the St. Agnes School gymnasium in Vermillion on Wednesday, April 29th, from 10:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon.

Funeral services will be held the following day, Thursday, April 30th at St. Agnes Catholic church at 10:30 a.m.

To honor Rosie's cheery spirit and love of life, we invite all who attend either event to wear something red. It was her favorite color.

In lieu of flowers, memorial donations may be directed to Dakota Senior Meals or the St. Agnes Religious Education Program.
