"I wish playing well in this tournament meant I was going to play well at Hillcrest too," Pierce said. "I've played at Fox Run and Hillcrest enough times, I have played decent at Hillcrest, but I've never really given myself a chance to win." Niall Turner and Owen Mahaffey ended the tournament in a tied for second with each of them shooting a 133.

Turner and Mahaffey were both three shots back of the leader after the first day, but consistent play the second day helped them drop one shot off their scores from the previous day and propelled them into a tie for second.

Robert Mink Jr. had a little trouble the first day only shooting a 70 which placed him six shots behind the leader.

"I hit the ball pretty well yesterday, but I couldn't make anything," Mink said. "It actually came over from Friday were I couldn't make anything that day either."

"All I did was make a few adjustments with my putter," he added. "Really putting today was the only difference in my game." His improvement on Saturday third. Kevin Harvick and Denny Hamlin, who won the last two Pocono races, round out the top five.

Edwards spoke with Roush on Sunday morning and said his boss sounded in good spirits.

"He was Jack," Edwards said. "Don't mess anything up. Don't wreck. He's been through a lot this last week. He really needed that victory. That's pretty cool. I'm sure he's really hard to handle for all those nurses in the hospital."

The start of the 500-mile race was delayed by rain, then had two lengthy red flag stops that totaled nearly 50 minutes.

Elliott Sadler and Kurt Busch both walked away from scary wrecks that knocked them out of the race.

LONG POND, Pa. (AP) — Greg Biffle won it for Jack Roush. Biffle raced to victory in an often-delayed Sprint Cup race at Pocono Raceway on Sunday to snap a 64-race winless streak and take the checkered flag for his injured team owner.

Biffle hadn't won since the first two races in the 2008 Chase for the Cup championship. But with Roush in the Mayo Clinic for injuries sustained in a plane crash in Wisconsin, Biffle found Victory Lane.

"We know he's watching," Biffle said. "It's been really tough. We worked so hard."

The team of Patti Balley, Mike Johnson and Dave Stanga tied for third place with the team of Neal Anderson, Kevin Murley and Brett Smith both teams shot a two day total of 247.
