Preview: City To Consider Liquor Ordinance Monday

From P&D Staff Reports

The expansion is possible because of a change in state law that took effect July 1.

In other business Monday, the commission will consider giving the Gurney Redevelopment Group permission to occupy right-of-way so a 10-foot boardwalk can be constructed on the north side of the Gurney building located at Second and Capital streets.

The meeting gets under way at 7 p.m. in the City of Yankton Meeting Room, located at the Technical Education Center, 1200 W. 21st St.

The Yankton City Commission will consider expanding the limits of its liquor ordinance Monday.

A public hearing will be held regarding whether the municipality should extend the time during which off-sale liquor licensees can sell their products. If the change is approved, sales will be allowable up to 2 a.m. instead of midnight.

The ordinance would also allow on- and off-sale licensees to sell beverages on Memorial Day.

Mary passed away on Sunday, August 1, 2010, at a care center in Watertown. She was the widow of Albert S. Holzwarth.

The family requests that memorials be directed to Kellerton-Zion Cemetery or to a mission of your choice.

Mary was born on October 13, 1907, the seventh of eleven children of Edward and Rose (Robish) Feind, at their humble farm home near Hazel, SD, in a community known as Kellerton. She attended Opdahl #2 elementary school and graduated from
