Nebraska Volleyball Sells Out Tickets At Coliseum

LINCOLN, Neb. — The Nebraska volleyball team's consecutive sellout streak of 149 matches at the NU Coliseum will continue to grow during the 2011 campaign. After single-match tickets went on sale Tuesday morning at 8 a.m., the Nebraska Athletic Ticket Office announced that tickets were sold out in less than 30 minutes.

With many of the home matches gone in a matter of minutes, some fans camped out at the ticket office starting on Sunday night. Seniors Brigitte Root and Jordan Wilberger thanked the fans for their loyal support of the volleyball program by brining fans donuts at 7 a.m. on Tuesday morning.

The only regular season tickets remaining are for the Saturday, Sept. 17 match-up with Iowa State at the Bob Devaney Sports Center. Tickets can be purchased at Huskers.com or over the phone at 1-800-8BIGRED and in person at the Nebraska Athletic Ticket Office from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. There will be no limit on the number of tickets purchased for the match at the Devaney Center.

Huskers' annual Red/White Scrimmage, scheduled for Saturday, Aug. 20 at 7 p.m. at the Coliseum.

The Huskers will be on the road for the first two weekends of the 2011 season when they play at Albuquerque, N.M. and Fort Collins, Colo. Nebraska will then return home to host its annual Ameritas Players Challenge, with Creighton, Weber State and St. Mary's making the trip to Lincoln. The Huskers are set to host their 150th consecutive sellout on Thursday, Sept. 8 when the Bluejeans play the Coliseum for the Ameritas Players Challenge.

Following the final non-conference match of the season with the Cyclones, the Huskers will play their first Big Ten Conference match when they host four-time defending champion Penn State at the Coliseum on Wednesday, Sept. 21 at 7 p.m.

Former Jack Sargent Signs Pro Deal In Germany

BROOKINGS — Recent South Dakota State graduate and men's basketball standout Clint Sargent signed a contract to play professionally in Germany this week when he came to terms with USC Heidelberg in the German Pro 'A' League.

Sargent becomes the second Jackrabbit in as many years to sign with a pro team overseas, joining Kai Williams, who signed with ADA Blois Basketball in France last year.

Sargent becomes the second Jackrabbit to sign with USC Heidelberg, following in the footsteps of 2008 SDSU graduate Ben Beran, who signed with the team in 2009 and gave Sargent a heads-up on what to expect in Germany.

A South Sioux City, Neb., native, Sargent finished his career with an SDSU record 252 career three-pointers and an SDSU record 659 three-point field goal attempts. He also finished fifth all-time at SDSU with 1,505 career points, which makes him the most prolific scorer at the Division I level.

Sargent leaves for Germany on Aug. 13.
