

HAPPY 150TH ANNIVERSARY TO YANKTON AND THE PRESS & DAKOTAN

PROUD TO BE PART OF A COMMUNITY RICH IN HISTORY.

- 1962: Valley State Bank opened its doors with just three employees. The bank started with a total capitalization of $300,000.
- 1983: Valley State Bank was purchased by First National of Nebraska, Inc. Plans called for increasing from 20 employees to 70 employees and the addition of a credit card operation.
- 1984-85: A new bank building was constructed and the old Valley State Bank building was demolished.
- 1994: The charter for Valley State Bank was changed to a national charter and the bank was renamed First National Bank South Dakota.
- 1996: The credit card operation moved to its own location on North Broadway. Today it is known as First National Service Center.
- 2011: Today First National Bank South Dakota is a thriving, full-service financial institution offering all banking products and services, as well as insurance, investments and trust services. First National Bank South Dakota together with First National Service Center employ over 250 people in Yankton.

Pictured top to bottom: First National Bank South Dakota today.

1984-85: A new bank building was constructed to the south of the old building. The old building was later demolished to make room for parking.

October 1962: First customers at Valley State Bank, the Robert Wilson family, being helped by Assistant Cashier Mrs. Harold Devick.

October 5, 1962: Erling Haugo (left), President of the new Valley State Bank, being presented a certificate of authority by Oscar Brosz, State Superintendent of Banks, while Charles Petersen (center), Asst. Cashier, looks on.

First National Bank South Dakota

332 Broadway, Yankton, SD
605-665-9611 • 800-262-9611
www.fnbsd.com

MEMBER
FDIC