Braves' Uggla Extends Hitting Streak To 32 Games; Homers Twice

ATLANTA (AP) — Dan Uggla set an Atlanta record by extending his hitting streak to 32 games with a home run against the Chicago Cubs on Friday night.

Uggla hit another homer in the fifth inning — the team's fifth of the game off Chicago's Carlos Zambrano.

Uggla's streak, which began on July 5, is the longest in the majors this season. He began the night tied for the longest in Atlanta Braves history with Rico Carty, who hit in 31 straight in 1970.

Tommy Holmes holds the franchise record with 37 as a member of the Boston Braves in 1945.

Uggla entered Friday night's game batting .355 (44 for 124) with 12 homers and 29 RBIs during the streak, but only .224 overall.

The teams will also have locally-grown sweet corn for sale at that site.

The event is a fundraiser for Yankton club high school teams and field maintenance.

CWS Gets OK For Replay

OMAHA, Neb. (AP) — The NCAA has given final approval for the use of instant replay to review certain calls at the 2012 College World Series.

Reviewable plays would be limited to deciding if an apparent home run is fair or foul, whether a batted ball left the playing field for a home run or a ground-rule double, or whether there is fan interference on apparent home runs.

The NCAA Baseball Rules Committee proposed the rule, and it was approved Thursday by the Playing Rules Oversight Panel.

Instant replay won't be used in regionals and super regionals because not all venues will have access to the same technology as TD Ameritrade Park, the new home of the CWS.

ISU To Host National Dual Meet Regional

AMES, Iowa (AP) — Iowa State is one of four schools set to host a wrestling regional for the Cliff Keen National Dual Meet.

The Cyclones say they'll host rival Iowa, along with Oregon State, Virginia Tech, Wisconsin and Northern Iowa, on Feb. 12.

The regionals are part of a new format for the meet that features four regional sites.

Cornell, Rutgers and Oklahoma State will also host regionals.

The winners of each regional advance to the championships on Feb. 19.

pitcher Jay Kusler balked in a run. Hegge followed with a triple to the score Donner and give Crofton a 3-1 edge.

"It was very big for us to stay on top," Schieffer said. "We wanted to make them play from behind."

The Bluejays chased Kusler in the top of the seventh, as Carl Schieffer and Chad Guenther notched back-to-back one-out singles. Reliever Justin Downes walked Trevor Arens and struck out Tony Guenther, but hit Mueller to plate another Crofton run.

Redfield threatened to get back into the game in the bottom of the seventh. Joel Osborn reached on an error and Chris Osborn doubled to left with no outs, but the next two batters grounded out to third. After Jacobsen was intentionally walked, Donner struck out Downes to end the threat.

Donner kept Redfield off base the rest of the day, striking out the side in order ˜ all with called third strikes ˜ to clinch the victory.

"In the ninth, the adrenaline was pumping hard," Donner said. "I wanted to throw strikes and challenge them. Once I got the first (strikeout), I wanted to keep challenging them.

"Once I got the second one, I wanted that third one."

Donner and Hegge each had two hits for Crofton, with Donner helping his cause by scoring two of his team's runs.

Jacobson and Eric Borge had two hits each for Redfield.

Donner walked two — one intentionally — in his second victory of the tournament.

"I came in thinking 'Don't walk anybody,'" he said. "I didn't have a good start, walking the first batter, but I regrouped after that and challenged them."

Crofton advances to face Larchwood, Iowa, in an all out-of-state semifinal, set for approximately 1 p.m. at Cadwell Park. The winner of that game will play for a state championship Sunday at approximately 2 p.m.

"We're not ready to be done yet," Schieffer said. "That's the reason why we're playing as hard as we are."

Yankton

the complete game three-hitter, retiring the final six batters and finishing with 12 strikeouts.

"When I'm throwing well, I throw a lot of strikes. My change wasn't there, but my slider was a good out pitch in the late innings," Bowman said. "The big thing was that I was getting ahead with my fastball."

Brookings' May was the only player from either team to have multiple hits.

Krier allowed one earned run and struck out three over eight innings in the loss. Thygeson struck out two in an inning of scoreless relief.

"One error did us in," said Yankton manager Ron Heine. "It was a tough loss. We played better than that."

Brookings now faces Castlewood in an elimination game today (Saturday) at 11 a.m. at Cadwell Park.

"We played them twice this year," said Brookings manager Tim Buterbaugh. "They have live arms and are an aggressive team. They can not be taken lightly."

The winner faces the Renner Monarchs at 5:30 p.m. for the right to play Brandon Valley for the championship Sunday at noon.

Red Sox

Stevenson sent the Red Sox to the bullpen for Chuck Benz. Benz misplayed two straight balls to score one run and load the bases, but then got the next two batters to pop up. Eric Danforth, a Legion pickup player, blasted a double to clear the bases and give the Ravens a 6-4 lead.

"If we don't throw around the ball that inning we're OK," said Vermillion manager Kirk Sorensen. "That cost us two runs. The rest of it went our way.

"But it didn't."

Vermillion got a run back in the seventh. A.J. Stariet drew a walk, moved up on Elliot's single and scored on a Chute flyout.

After Vermillion had a pair of hits in the eighth, Castlewood went to the pen for Matt Stevenson. Stevenson got Chute to ground out with the bases loaded to end the threat.

In the ninth, Vermillion had two runners on with two outs, but Matt Stevenson's third strikeout of the inning ended the game.

"We were hoping to get to extra innings," Sorensen said. "Our guy (Olson) is a starter. He had nine innings in him. We felt that their relief couldn't go that long."

Eric Danforth, Hoftiezer and Drew Danforth each had two hits for Castlewood.

Elliot, Lessman and McLaughlin had two hits apiece for Vermillion.

Wahl went 7 2/3 for the win, striking out four. Matt Stevenson got the final four outs for the save.

"Stevenson's an old vet from SDSU (South Dakota State)," Sorensen said. "He beat us 12 years ago, and he beat us again today."

Benz took the loss, with Nate Olson throwing three innings of shutout relief.

Castlewood now advances to face Brookings today (Saturday) at 11 a.m. at Cadwell Park. The winner will face Renner today at 5:30 p.m. for the right to play Brandon Valley in the championship Sunday at noon.

For the Ravens to continue their run, they will need to be hitting on all cylinders.

"Like we have before, we need to get the big inning and we've got to have great starts from our pitching," Wahl said. "We know we're the underdogs, because we moved from 'B' to 'A' but we'll make it a good fight."
