Pheasants Sign Local Rookie, Send Lawhorn To DL

SIoux FALLS — Hartford resident Rob Lind didn't have to go far to get his first taste of professional baseball. The Sioux Falls Pheasants signed the rookie infielder and graduate of West Central High School on Friday.

Lind played collegiately most recently at Georgia State. In the 2011 season with the Panthers, Lind hit .327, slugged 10 home runs and drove home 37 RBI. He played previously at Iowa Western Community College.

On Friday, the Pheasants also placed third baseman Trevor Lawhorn on the disabled list, retroactive to August 9. Lawhorn has been hampered by a sore quad.

The Pheasants' roster has 22 active players plus two men on the disabled list, Lawhorn and catcher Henry Contreras. American Association rules allow for 23 active players beginning August 21 through the remainder of the regular season.

Saturday Mixed Bowling League Meeting Aug. 28

The Saturday Night Mixed Bowling League will hold its fall preseason meeting on Sunday, Aug. 28, at 7 p.m. at Yankton Bowl.

Among the topics of discussion will be the number of weeks the league will run, how many double shifts will be held and the cost of bowling.

The league has openings for new teams and bowlers. If interested in participating, attend the meeting or contact Jan Putnam at 605-661-1174.

Jamestown College Wrestling Coach Resigns

JAMESTOWN, N.D. (AP) — Jamestown College wrestling coach Cisco Cole has resigned about three weeks after he fired a gun during a domestic dispute at his home.

Cole, 34, submitted his resignation on Thursday, saying he did not want to be a distraction to the men's and women's wrestling teams, The Jamestown Sun reported (<http://bit.ly/pmtXDG>).

"Clearly, this was going to continue to be a distraction to both of the teams and this school and instead of having this constantly hanging over everybody's head, I chose to remove myself and hope now everyone can move forward," he said.

Cole said he was not pressured to quit and thanked the school for continuing to support him even after he pleaded guilty to disorderly conduct. College President Robert Badal said earlier that the school believed Cole had been punished appropriately to the situation.

Police said Cole and his wife had been arguing July 26 when he picked up a rifle and fired it into a bedroom ceiling. No one was hurt, but his two children, ages 1 and 2, were in the home at the time.

"I'm thankful that the truth came out in that there was no felony, no endangerment of my children. But I take full responsibility for the mistake I made," he said. "It was a severe error in judgment. It's not something I am going to forget, nor should I. I have to live with the consequences."

Cole had been the men's head coach since 2007. He helped start the women's program last year.

"We thank Cisco for his years of commitment to Jamestown College and wish him well as he pursues other interests," Athletic Director Lawrie Paulson said.

Four Nebraska Walk-Ons Awarded Scholarships

LINCOLN, Neb. (AP) — Nebraska coach Bo Pelini has awarded football scholarships to four walk-ons.

The recipients announced Friday are senior I-back Austin Jones, senior fullback Tyler Legate, senior defensive back Lance Thorell and junior long snapper P.J. Mangieri.

Jones has played in 10 games as a reserve I-back the past two seasons. Legate joined the Nebraska program in 2008 after one season at South Dakota. Legate has played in 27 games the past two seasons, including 10 starts at fullback.

The Hurricanes are under NCAA investigation because of claims brought by former booster and convicted Ponzi scheme architect Nevin Shapiro, who says he provided cash, cars, prostitutes and gifts to 72 players from 2002 through 2010.

In an interview that was posted online Friday by Miami's student newspaper, The Miami Hurricane, Shalala said she plans to remain at the school "for a long time."

Little League Sets Attendance Record For Pa. Game

SOUTH WILLIAMSPORT, Pa. (AP) — A Pennsylvania team helped Little League set an attendance record Friday night at the World Series.

Little League officials said the game between La-Grange, Ky., and Clinton County, Pa., drew 41,848 fans to Lamade Stadium. The old record of 40,000 had been set twice before, for the 1989 and 1990 championship games.

The Keystone league team from Clinton County plays its home games just 30 miles away from South Williamsport.

Little League officials anticipated a large crowd and moved the game from the World Series' complex smaller venue, Volunteer Stadium, with a capacity of 6,000, to the larger Lamade Stadium. Lamade seats about 9,000, but can accommodate thousands more on the grassy hill above the outfield.

Former Oakland Standout Benson To Play In Italy

ROCHESTER, Mich. (AP) — Atlanta Hawks draft pick Keith Benson is headed to play in Italy.

The 6-foot-11 Oakland University product will join the Italian team Sassari. OU says Benson received an opt-out clause in his contract that would enable him to return to the Hawks once the NBA lockout is over.

Allanta took Benson in the second round, making him the first Oakland player ever taken in the draft. Benson is the Summit League's career leader in blocked shots. He's also the only Summit League player to surpass 1,500 points, 1,000 rebounds and 300 blocks.

Correction: NFL Player Concussions-Lawsuit

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — In an Aug. 18 story about seven former players suing the NFL over the league's handling of concussion-related injuries, The Associated Press erroneously reported that Joe Thomas of the Cleveland Browns was a member of the lawsuit, relying on information provided from the plaintiff's attorney in the case. The former player involved in the case is Joseph "Joey" Thomas, of Seattle.
