Gross Named S.D. Boys' Assistant Coach Of The Year

SIoux FALLS —Yankton High School's Randy Gross has been named the state's Assistant Coach of the Year for boys' sports, according to a release Tuesday by the South Dakota High School Coaches Association.

Gross, who also serves as Yankton's head boys' basketball coach, is as an assistant with the YHS football and track programs.

Also recognized by the SDHSCA were Andes Central's Jeff Walder as Junior High/Middle School Coach of the Year, and Chamberlain's Becky Jensen as Assistant Girls' Coach of the Year.

The coaches will be recognized at the annual awards banquet to be held in Aberdeen on Wednesday, July 18, in conjunction with the summer coaches' clinic.

Area Players Named To Amateur Baseball All-Tourney Teams

MITCHELL —A number of area players were named to the South Dakota State Amateur Baseball All-Tournament Team, according to the list released Monday by the South Dakota Amateur Baseball Association (SDABA).

Selections were divided into Class A and Class B. Class B champion Crofton, which earned the Sportsmanship Award, had five players honored. Scot Donner (tournament MVP), Nick Hegge, Aaron Losing, Mike Sturm and Carl Schieffer were recognized. The Bluejays defeated fellow South Central League member Tabor in the state championship game on Aug. 14.

Class B runner-up Tabor Bluebirds placed four players on the All-Tournament team, Gary Kortan, Logan Kortan, Tyler Edler and Steve Fejfar.

The Yankton Tappers (Rand Thygeson) and Vermillion Red Sox (Robin Chute) each had one player named to the Class A All-Tournament team.

Likness, MMC Coaches At QB Club Today

The Yankton Quarterback Club will meet today (Wednesday) at noon at the Elks Lodge, 504 West 27th Street, Yankton.

This week's speakers are Yankton High School football coach Arlin Likness and the fall sports coaches from Mount Marty College.

Likness will preview the 2011 season for the Yankton Bucks, who host Pierre on Saturday night. Kick-off is 7:30 p.m. at Crane-Youngworth Field.

The public is invited to attend.

Neb. Volleyball Tournament Stays

In Grand Island

LINCOLN, Neb. (AP) — The state volleyball tournament is staying in Grand Island.

The Lincoln Journal Star says the board of directors of the Nebraska School Activities Association voted Tuesday to award the 2012 and 2013 tournaments to Grand Island.

Lincoln, which hosted state volleyball from 1981 to 2009, also put in a bid. The newspaper says, however, the proposal didn't include the use of the NU Coliseum or the Deveney Sports Center, and that was a factor in the board's decision. When the tournament was in Lincoln, it was at the aging Pershing Center, and concerns about the center played a part in moving state volleyball to Grand Island in 2010 and 2011.

Pershing remained the centerpiece of Lincoln's latest bid.

Former Major Leaguer Coste Ends Pro Career

FARGO, N.D. (AP) — Former major league baseball player Chris Coste is ending his dream of a professional comeback and instead taking an assistant coaching position with his alma mater, Concordia College in Moorhead, Minn.

Coste grew up in neighboring Fargo, N.D., and played with the independent Fargo-Moorhead RedHawks before embarking on a minor league career that eventually landed him in the majors for four seasons with Philadelphia and Houston. He penned the book "The 33-year-old Rookie," won a World Series ring with the Phillies in 2008, and has been working as an analyst on pregame and postgame shows this season.

Coste had elbow surgery last year but had hoped to come back with an independent team this year. He tells The Forum newspaper that the plans were dashed by other nagging injuries.

Twins Prospect Gibson To Continue Elbow Rehab

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Minnesota Twins general manager Bill Smith says top pitching prospect Kyle Gibson will continue rehabbing his injured elbow after meeting with a specialist in New York.

Gibson met with Dr. David Altcheck for an examination on Monday. Altcheck performed Tommy John surgery on Twins closer Jose Nathan and has done the procedure on numerous other pitchers.

Gibson isn't going to have the surgery yet. He has a strained muscle in his elbow and a partially torn ulnar collateral ligament. The Twins' medical staff initially recommended trying to fix the injury through rehabilitation and not surgery, which would keep him out of all next season.

Smith says Altcheck supported that recommendation after the examination. Gibson will continue his rehab program in Florida and will be re-evaluated after the initial phase.

Vikings Sign Georgia RB Caleb King

EDEN PRAIRIE, Minn. (AP) — The Minnesota Vikings have signed former Georgia running back Caleb King after he did not get chosen in the supplemental draft.

King rushed for 430 yards and two touchdowns as a junior last season and amassed 1,271 yards rushing and 10 scores in his three-year career. He was declared academically ineligible in the spring, so he entered Tuesday's supplemental draft.

He was not picked, so he was free to sign with any team and he landed with the Vikings on Wednesday. In Minnesota, he joins an established backfield that includes Adrian Peterson, Toby Gerhart and Lorenzo Booker.
