Something Memorable Seems To Happen When 'A' Is In Town

BY JAMES D. CIMBUREK james.cimburek@yankton.net

It is said that the beauty of baseball is that every time you go to the ballpark for a game, you may see something you've never seen before.

There wasn't anything quite that unique during the South Dakota State Class A Amateur Baseball Tournament this past weekend at Yankton's Riverside Field, but it was still some pretty good baseball with a few memorable moments.

Granted, the previous two times Yankton hosted the first weekend of the 'A' bracket, the tourney set the bar very high. In 2007, when the state amateur came to Yankton for the first time since 1973, the event opened with a record 17-inning game between Brookings and the Renner Roadrunners. Three years later, Yankton's Trey Krier opened the tournament by throwing the first nine-inning no-hitter in a state tourney game since 1948. No no-hitters or extra-long games this time, though Brandon Valley's Bryce Ahrendt did pitch into the sev-enth before he allowed his first hit on Saturday, a home run by Pierre's Harry Decker. But we did have a rain postponement in a summer that has seen almost no rain, as well as some very well-played baseball. Yankton also put on a good show. Despite a hot and dry summer and months of overuse, Riverside Field looked in good shape. There was also the traditional Yankton hospitality.

By the next time the State 'A' — or another big baseball tournament — comes to Yankton, hopefully the Yank-ton Baseball Association will have its goal of an artificial surface at Riverside fulfilled. Either way, I'm sure Riverside will be ready to provide a few more memories.

College Officials Work Hall Of Fame Game

CANTON, Ohio (AP) - A crew of officials with college experience worked the Hall of Fame game Sunday night, filling in for regulars who are locked out in a labor dispute with the NFL

It was a glimpse of what's to come if the NFL and the officials' union fail to reach an agreement before the season openers. And it didn't take long to have a gaffe.

Craig Ochoa, who has worked Big Ten games, was the referee for the game between the New Orleans Saints and the Arizona Cardinals. Ochoa has eight years of experience in BCS conferences and 16 years officiating Division III games.

He flipped a commemorative coin at midfield to start the game, then incorrectly announced the result to the crowd, saying that New Orleans had won the toss and deferred.

Then, starting to walk away, he caught his mistake.

Correction, Arizona won the coin toss," he said.

The fill-ins had several rough moments.

After New Orleans scored on its first possession, several Saints came in to block for the extra point and gestured to the officials to point out that they had reported for the play. Coming out of the 2-minute warning in the first half, Ochoa announced that the previous play was under review, then corrected himself and said it was not.

The officials had trouble spotting the ball after a punt that indan Op I, Madison; 6. Kevin Flowers, Hartford 28, (32) David Ragan, Ford, 96, 52.9, 16, $81,332.
