

LifeLight Bus To Stop At Pizza Ranch Today

LifeLight is hitting the road to 15 cities in the month of August to celebrate the 15th anniversary of the upcoming LifeLight South Dakota Festival. One of those stops will be at the Yankton Pizza Ranch today (Friday). The LifeLight bus will be in the parking lot from 11 a.m.-1:30 p.m.

Pick up information about the upcoming festival, visit with LifeLight Founders Alan & Vicki Greene, and get yourself signed up for a chance to win backstage tour passes for this year's festival (one pair given away at each stop).

Stevens To Perform At Trinity Church Sunday

Sophie Genevieve Stevens will be performing a Master's Violin Recital at 7 p.m. Sunday, Aug. 12, at Trinity Lutheran Church, 403 Broadway, Yankton.

She will also perform at 7 p.m. Sunday, Aug. 19, at Majestic Bluffs, 2111 W. 11th St., Yankton.
These performances are open to the public.

Dante Church Hosting Festival Benefit

DANTE — Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary Parish, Dante, is holding its annual Harvest Festival fundraiser on Sunday, Aug. 12.

Serving will begin at 4 p.m. in the air-conditioned hall with two serving lines. The menu includes a broasted chicken meal with homemade rollicky, kolaches and desserts.

Bingo, a raffle, and games for all ages will also be available downtown in our air conditioned dance hall. The church centennial cookbook will also be for sale.

Calvary Kids Preschool Open House Monday

Calvary Kids Preschool, located at 2407 Broadway in Yankton, will host an open house on Monday, Aug. 13, running from 6:30-8 p.m.

Come visit the classroom, meet the teachers, preview the curriculum, see the SmartBoard, and get additional information about the school.

All new registrations turned in that night will be entered into a drawing for $25 off the registration fee. Refreshments will be served.

Calvary Kids Preschool offers a quality education for 3-year-olds, 4-year-olds and Junior Kindergarten in a caring Christian environment. For additional information, contact Laurie Hanson at (605) 665-5594 or visit www.calvarykidspreschool.com.

Quilt Show Set For Calvary Church

A quilt show featuring quilts by Pat Knoechel will be held at Yankton's Calvary Baptist Church at 7-9 p.m. Monday, Aug. 27.
A free-will donation will be asked.

Lakeport Church Celebration Slated Sept. 9

Lakeport Church will have their 29th annual celebration on Sept. 9. Mass time is 10:30 a.m. with Father Dan Morris officiating. This year will be dedicated to Robert Hanson and the Henry Adam Family whom has done much to preserve the church.

The church is located 10 miles west of Yankton on the west side of Bruce Schwarz farm. The motto is "Restoring the Past for the Future." A potluck dinner will be held at the American Legion Hall in Tabor after mass. Bring a dish to share and your table service (plate, cup, silverware, etc.). Coffee and cold drinks will be furnished. Any questions, call Leona Cwach at 665-7956.

A clean-up day has been set for 1 p.m. Sunday, Sept. 2. Bring cleaning supplies and a snack to share.

Reflections

Do You ‘Know Who Holds Tomorrow’?

BY PASTOR BOB MASON

Associate Pastor, Kingsway Christian Church

Is it "what the future holds?" or "who holds our future?"

The Gospel song "I Know Who Holds Tomorrow" is worded to bring comfort and counsel to followers of Jesus Christ. I feel that such a song as this has a message for the times we are now living in.

Alarming information comes to us about the conditions that are developing this year. We are learning of many concerns regarding our economic, national international and moral situations. Now, with a dry, hot summer, additional concern has developed about what we will be facing in the immediate future. It is something that many of us do not enjoy thinking about. I believe Jesus had this in mind when in the Gospel of Matthew we find these words in the sixth chapter:

"Therefore take no thought, saying, what shall we eat? Or what shall we drink? Or wherewithal shall we be clothed? (After all these things shall the gentiles seek) for your heavenly father knows that you have need of all these things. But seek first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness, and all these things shall be added unto you. Take no thought for the tomorrow: for the morrow shall take thought for the things of itself. Sufficient to the day is the evil thereof (Vs 31-33)."

May I share with you how this passage brings comfort and assurance that God cares? He shares with us the best priorities available to live in harmony with His creation around us. He also wants to show us how to deal with worry. I know that there are many people inclined to worry, including myself. If we are not worried about something, then we worry why we are not! Today conditions seem to be at their best to produce all the worry anyone would want. But we must remember that our Creator cares about us! I know he does because I can testify to the fact that He answers prayer. Day by day problems I have taken to Him in prayer at the end of the day are solved by a way I never thought of. Some even by the next morning!

When Jesus came into my life during my early 20s, I began to see values and goals started to change in my life. It began with new priorities over my needs and goals. God gave me a vision affecting how I would best serve Him. Il Corinthians states that: "if anyone be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things have passed away: behold, behold, all things have become new." I thought that this would be an almost immediate process, but now, since I have just turned 80, I find that He still has to work on me! As the hymn writer wrote in Great is Thy Faithfulness, "Morning by morning, new mercies I see!" The longer I have lived, the more I realize how much he loves me and protects me.

In I Thessalonians chapter five verse 18 we read: "In everything give thanks, for this is the will of God in Christ concerning you." This is not always easy to do, believe me! But we can take our anxieties and cares to Him. He wants us to. Peter writes the following in his first epistle chapter 5 verses 6 and 7: "Humble yourselves therefore under the mighty hand of God, that he may exalt you in due time: Casting all your care upon him for he cares for you."

An illustration of this would be when Billy Graham and his team were en route to London, England, to hold the 1954 evangelistic crusade. A statement on promotional material came to the attention of the Britain's media. Instead of reading "secularism" as intended the word "socialism" was used. This was a very sensitive word in British politics. A newspaper headline read: "Apologize Billy, or Stay Away." The crusade team was confronted by this dilemma that could destroy the purpose of their coming. The cause was found to be a printing error in some promotional material. Corrections were made and apologies were given and accepted. Having very little publicity up to this time which had been very disappointing, England was now aware of the coming crusade with more press coverage then ever before! God was able to turn this unpleasant incident around and the London Crusade ended with a great a great spiritual awakening! Doors opened up to extend the ministry into Europe and later into other continents including Communist Nations.

I am reminded of the challenge I received in seminary chapel back in 1958 when in closing the service on that day the speaker took us to Psalm 46 which opens with these words;

God is our refuge and strength
A very present help in trouble
Therefore will not we fear,
Though the earth be removed,
And though the mountains be carried
Into the midst of the sea.

If you find yourself worried at night and thinking of counting sheep as you lay in bed, Instead, may I remind you that as believers can talk to the shepherd Himself!
