Stallone Skips 'Expendables 2' Promotions After Death Of His Son

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The cast of "The Expendables 2" say they're giving co-star and writer Sylvester Stallone space after the death of his son last month.

Stallone's 36-year-old son Sage died on July 13 in his Los Angeles home — a day after Stallone was joined by Arnold Schwarzenegger and other "Expendables" stars at Comic-Con in San Diego.

"Something like that is so severe. You can't really do anything. I sent him a handwritten note. I contributed to a charity for his kid," said Dolph Lundgren, one of a number of aging action stars featured in the film, which opens Aug. 17.

"He knows we're thinking about him," Lundgren said at a recent media event for the film. "He knows us. He knows our prayers go out to him. But what are you going to do? I have two kids. And all you can do is hug your kids and go thank God it didn't happen to you."

Stallone has not made any public appearances since the death. His publicist said in a statement that the star was "devastated and griefstricken." No cause of death has been announced.

Sage Moonblood Stallone was the oldest of Sylvester Stallone's children and co-starred with his father in two films: 1990's "Rocky V" and 1996's "Daylight."

Mixed-martial-arts veteran turned actor Randy Couture said the cast was missing Stallone during promotion of the film, which includes a European trip and next week's Los Angeles premiere.

"He is the leader of this group, both on-screen and off-screen. And so we miss him here," Couture said. "But we understand. We're parents. We have kids. We can't really imagine what he's going through now. But what do you say? ... So we're giving him space."

Co-star Terry Crews, a former NFL player turned actor, said the cast would handle publicity for the film to allow Stallone time to grieve.

'The best thing that we can do right now is hold it down here for him. This is his baby," Crews said. "This is one thing that he came up with that he's changed the world yet again. And I'm proud to be here and repping for him. Whatever he needs, we got him."

spreads because it's something we only do a couple times a year."

Jones said performing at Riverboat Days in Yankton had never been an option because of his schedule, but that changed 18 months ago when he moved to Yankton.

Hoping to "throw Wakefield's name in the hat," Jones contacted the Riverboat Days office last year.

"I sent them an (anonymous) email that basically said, 'There's a movement to have a Wakefield reunion for Riverboat Days 2012, and I can make it happen, call me at this number," he said with a Later that day, Jones received a call from the office.

"They asked if we were the same band that made the album in the '80s, and I said, 'Yeah, we're the same guys," Jones said. "And they said, 'Awesome, we want to have you guys play."

Riverboat Days secretary Katie
Greene said Wakefield will make a great addition to the lineup for the celebration.

"The Riverboat Days Board of Directors is always trying to look for bands that appeal to all age groups and music lovers," she said. "We want to do whatever we can to keep positive energy in the park during Riverboat Days week-

Jones said he is excited about the upcoming performance, as Wakefield performed at Riverboat Days in the 1980s, and he has always had fond memories of the

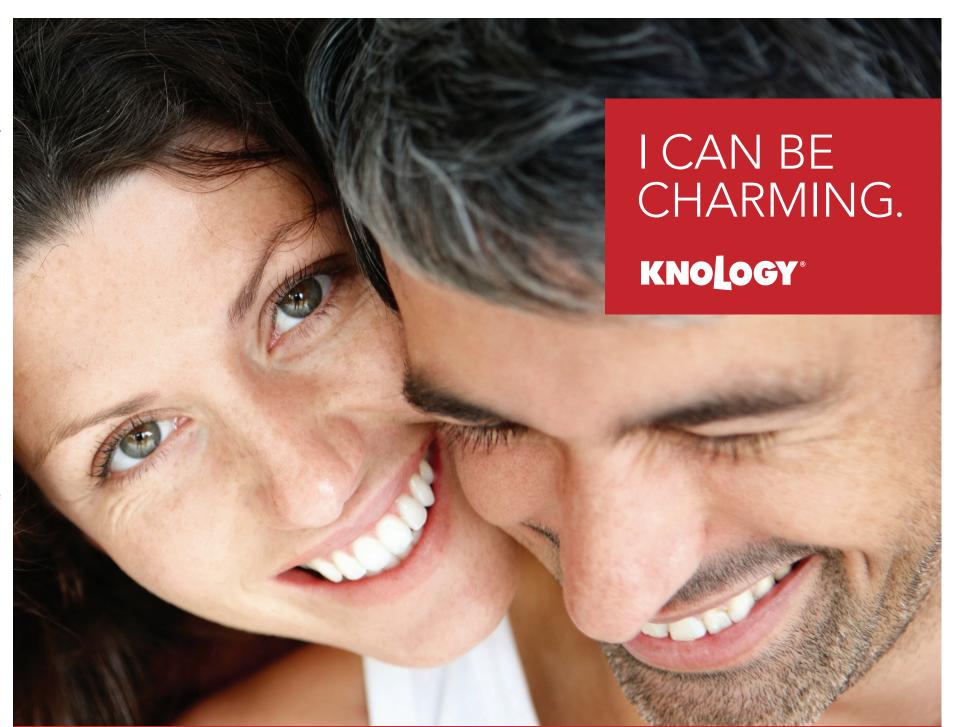

"I remember there were a lot of people that came out, and it was just a really neat event with all the crafts and music and other stuff going on," he said. "It was just a lot of fun to play."

While most people attending the show will remember Wakefield from the 1980s, Jones said the performance is also suited for younger music fans, and the band also has many special effects to keep the audience entertained.

"It's going to be fun," he said. For more information about Wakefield, visit www.evanjonesmusic.com and click on the 'Wakefield" tab. For more information about Riverboat Days and a full schedule of events, visit www.riverboatdays.com
