Vermillion twice cut into the Merchants' lead, scoring twice in the third and twice again in the sixth. Each time, though, Brandon Valley had an answer, matching the two runs the Red Sox put up in the third and batting around for five runs in the sixth. "What helped us was that we scored after every time they scored," Bryce Ahrendt said. "We jumped out early and never looked back."

"He's a reliever type, so we were hoping for four, five innings out of him," Sorensen said of Weeter. "He gave us a great effort. I can't say enough about how good he did." Vermillion scored its first seven runs with only two hits, plating three runs in the third and four more in the fifth. Vermillion added three runs in the sixth to ice the game by 10-run rule. Travis Hanson had two of Vermillion's six hits. Jay Merrigan did not have a hit, but walked three times and scored three times. Jared Miller, a pickup player from Yankton, drove in three runs and scored twice in the win Andy Turbak, the former Mount Marty standout, had the lone Castlewood hit, a first-inning single. The hit was enough to clinch him the Class A batting title for the tournament.

"A few of us have won titles at every level," Nolz said. "This is the one we wanted. This is the hardest. It's 32 teams, winnertake-all."

Crofton knows how hard it is to get to this level. For the third straight season, the Bluejays end their season on the field during the state championship game. While becoming the first team since Canova (1997-99) to play in three straight title games, the Bluejays were denied the chance to become the first back-to-back 'B' champs since Vermillion in 2003-04. "Second place is nothing to hang our heads about," Schieffer said. "We have a great group of guys. Hopefully we'll stay together and make it four straight (finals appearances) next year." Crofton advanced to the final with a 4-1 victory over Britton on Saturday.

"It's hard to get here even once," said Crofton pitcher Donner, who struck out 12 in picking up his second win of the state tournament. "We play solid baseball, and the end results have been good.'

Donner also helped his cause with three hits, including two doubles, and three RBI. Mueller had two hits, including a triple. Guenther and Trevor Arens each doubled win the victory. Troy Knecht had two of Britton's five hits and drove in the Lumberjacks' lone run. Drew Amacher pitched 6 1/3 innings, giving up all four runs, in
