place in the order. "I wasn't nervous at all," Myers said. "I knew Jake was going to get the next" out. While the California kids were understandably down, Smith urged his players to shake it off the disappointment to start focusing on Monday's elimination game against

New Jersey. "It's a strong group of kids and we can hit the ball," he said. "We're in any game."

So is Tennessee, which also scratched out runs with textbook baserunning. Rucker went 3 for 4 with three runs, scoring on a passed ball and two fielder's choices. He also earned the win in relief. PANAMA 8, CANADA 3: James Gonzalez had two homers and six RBIs, including a grand slam, for Aquadulce, Panama. After leaving the bases loads run taken off the board in the first due to a runner leaving early, Panama broke out for six in the second. Carlos Flavio started the outburst with a solo homer. Edisson Gonzalez also had
