Autumn Movie Season Nearing Hollywood's 3 Bs For Fall: Bond, Bella And Bilbo

BY DAVID GERMAIN
AP Movie Writer

LOS ANGELES — The B-list rules Hollywood's fall and holiday movie season: Bond, Bella and Bilbo.

Daniel Craig is back as James Bond in "Skyfall," the super-spy's first adventure in four years, one of the longest 007 hiatuses in the franchise's 50-year history. Kirsten Stewart returns for her swan song as Bella Swan, alongside vampire hubby Robert Pattinson and jealous werewolf pal Taylor Lautner in "The Twilight Saga: Breaking Dawn — Part 2," the franchise finale.

And Bilbo Baggins goes jewelry shopping for an evil ring in "The Hobbit: An Unexpected Journey," the first installment in Peter Jackson's three-part prelude to his Academy Award-winning adaptation of J.R.R. Tolkien's "The Lord of the Rings." Ian McKellen, Cate Blanchett, Elijah Wood and others reprise their "Lord of the Rings" roles, but "The Hobbit" hinges on newcomer Martin Freeman as Bilbo. The filmmakers were so set on him that production halted for three months while Freeman returned to "Sherlock," the British TV hit in which he plays Dr. Watson.

"It was sort of unheard of for a big-budget movie, but because we wanted him so badly, the studio supported us, and we made that provision in our schedule," Jackson said. "He carries the movie. You get that casting wrong and you're in huge trouble."

- Here are highlights of Hollywood's fall and holiday movie lineup:
- SEPTEMBER:
 - "Arbitrage": Richard Gere stars in a Wall Street thriller about a deceitful hedge-fund manager negotiating a merger.
 - "Dredd": An executioner (Karl Urban) fights a drug epidemic in post-apocalyptic America.
 - "End of Watch": Jake Gyllenhaal and Michael Pena are cops minding the mean streets of Los Angeles.
 - "Finding Nemo": The beloved father-son animated fish tale returns in a 3-D version.
 - "Hotel Transylvania": Adam Sandler provides the voice of Dracula in an animated monster mash.
 - "The House at the End of the Street": A dream house becomes a place of terror for a mom and her daughter (Elisabeth Shue and Jennifer Lawrence).
 - "Looper": Joseph Gordon-Livitt's a hitman assigned to bump off his future self (Bruce Willis) in a time-travel thriller.
 - "The Master": A World War II Navy veteran (Joaquin Phoenix) falls under the spell of a charismatic cult leader (Philip Seymour Hoffman).
 - "The Perks of Being a Wallflower": Emma Watson, Logan Lerman, and Ezra Miller star in a teen coming-of-age tale.
 - "Resident Evil: Retribution": Milla Jovovich resumes her battle against a plague of zombies.
 - "Trouble with the Curve": An aging baseball scout (Clint Eastwood) enlists his daughter (Amy Adams) on his latest talent trip.
 - "Won't Back Down": Two moms (Maggie Gyllenhaal and Viola Davis) fight to save their kids' inner-city school.
 - "The Words": A writer (Bradley Cooper) must face the music after plagiarizing a novel.

OCTOBER:

- "Alex Cross": A homicide investigator (Tyler Perry) squares off against a serial killer (Matthew Fox).
- "Argo": Ben Affleck directs and stars in a rescue thriller set against the 1979 Iranian hostage crisis.
- "Cloud Atlas": Tom Hanks and Halle Berry lead an ensemble of stars in multiple roles for an epic saga that spans centuries.
- "Chasing Mavericks": Gerard Butler and Jonny Weston star in the true-life story of surfer Jay Moriarty.
- "Frankenweenie": Tim Burton updates his early short film with an animated feature about a
