YFD Responds To Grass Fire Tuesday

Yankton firefighters responded to a small grass fire along a road-side northwest of Yankton late Tuesday afternoon — a blaze started by a cigarette tossed out of a car.

A witness saw the cigarette tossed, although a license plate was not obtained.

The subsequent fire, ignited along 306th St., was called in at about 5:45 p.m. Fortunately, the blaze burned in a ditch along a green alfalfa field and was quickly contained.

Emergency and fire officials remind the public that discarding cigarettes or other lit items from a vehicle during dry conditions can have severe consequences, and caution is urged.
