asked why she's entering the crowded field again. "So this show that Katie Couric is going to do, or Steve Harvey is going to do, is not the show that we are going to do. I do feel like I've done so many other things in my career and that (this) is the one that I was born to do, because I have a natural curiosity. I really am authentic, what you see is what you get with me, and this is where I'm in my comfort zone."

Yes, she added, "There's a lot of competition right now, but ... I'm like, bring it on."

• "Steve Harvey," weekdays beginning Sept. 10

The "Family Feud" host says the difference between his show, shooting in Chicago, is that he'll bring a male viewpoint. "There's nobody in daytime TV that can beat me at the funny thing," he told the Chicago Sun-Times, "except Ellen DeGeneres. She's my girl. I love her. Other than Ellen, I think I'm the guy who's gonna put more funny on television."

We have rescheduled adult computer classes in partnership with Southeast Job Link. On Sept. 14, Introduction to E-mail Basics will be held. Introduction to Microsoft Word will be held on Sept. 21. Both classes run from 10 a.m. to noon at Southeast Job Link. There is fee which must be paid at the library to secure a seat in the classes. Scholarships are available to attendees.

On Thursday, Sept. 20, at 7 p.m., we will hold a Master Gardeners' Class Reunion for anyone who has attended Betts and Mary's previous classes. The two will facilitate a roundtable discussion on gardening and landscaping successes and failures. There is no charge.

Jamie Sullivan will facilitate the discussion of Michael L. Lawson's "Dammed Indians Revisited: The Continuing History of the Pick-Sloan Plan and the Missouri River Sioux" on Thursday, Oct. 11, at 6:30 p.m. This is the 2012 One Book South Dakota selection, and we are in partnership with the South Dakota Humanities Council. Books are available for check out.

Doug Sall will be leading a program in commemoration of the 50th anniversary of the Cuban Missile Crisis. On Oct. 16, he will present information including President Kennedy's speech, a discussion about a documentary based upon an interview with the pilot who took the missile site pictures while flying over Cuba, and some of his memories of the crisis. On Oct. 23, we will show the movie "Thirteen Days," the fictional depiction of this time in our history. Both programs begin at 6:30 p.m.

Readers Anonymous, our afternoon book club, will discuss Jodi Picoult's book "Salem Falls" at 1 p.m. Tuesday, Sept. 11. This club, which is open to new members, meets the second Tuesday of each month.

Between the Lines, our evening book club which is also open to new members, meets the third Tuesday of each month at 5:30 p.m. On Sept. 18, they will discuss the unforgettable book "Peyton Place" by Grace Metal-

Have you checked out our Family Issues book shelf yet? If not, you are missing some great resources to begin discussions with your children about feelings, fears, staying safe and bullies, as well as situations such as divorce, illness, and the adjustment of moving to a new place. This special shelf is located in the children's area of the library.

We collected 58 packages of cereal during our August Food for Fines. We will collect peanut butter and jelly Sept. 8-16, with all donations going to the Contact

The library will be closed on Monday, Sept. 3, for Labor Day. Fall/winter hours begin on Tuesday, Sept. 4. They are: Monday through Thursday, 9 a.m.-8 p.m.; Friday/Saturday, 9 a.m.-5 p.m.; Sunday, 1-5 p.m.

It's time to mark your calendars and save the date of March 9, 2013, for the Friends of the Library Gourmet Guys evening.

Friends of the Library will not hold a book sale in September but will be back on Saturday, Oct. 4. Friends is always happy to accept gently used books for their sales.

Did you know that in 2011, we interlibrary-loaned 4,019 items for our patrons?

You can contact the library at 605-668-5275 or e-mail me at kjacobs@sdln.net. View us online at http://www.yanktonsd.org/yankton/library/index.php or visit us on Facebook by searching Yankton Community Library.
