One-Stop-Shop Website Launched To Educate Business Owners About Affordable Care Act

WASHINGTON - The Obama Administration today launched Business.USA.gov/healthcare, a one-stop-shop Website which will provide employers of all sizes educational materials on how the Affordable Care Act may affect businesses and help them compete.

The site includes a wizard tool that is tailored based on size and location, so businesses can learn how the law helps them provide affordable coverage options to their employees while still meeting their bottom line. The site will act as a user-friendly hub that connects employers to informational content on tax credits and other provisions of the law from the Small Business Administration, the Department of Health and Human Services (HHS), and the Treasury Department.

As part of the Administration's ongoing dialogue with leaders of our nation's top businesses, this latest tool will help ensure that employers of all sizes know what the Affordable Care Act means for them, and have the information they need to take advantage of the new benefits and opportunities under the law. The Administration will work with the employer community to ensure the site continues to be a helpful resource for businesses and their employees, including updating the site with additional, timely information.

"As the Affordable Care Act is implemented, it is so important for us to work with the business community and provide employers with the information they need," said U.S. Commerce Secretary Penny Pritzker. "The health care website on Business.USA.gov/healthcare will be a tremendous resource for self-employed Americans and businesses of all sizes to learn what the Affordable Care Act means for them."

The Affordable Care Act helps level the playing field for small businesses, expanding their bargaining power and their ability to offer the kind of valuable benefit packages that attract and retain top-quality workers. Small businesses are a cornerstone of our economy and we are committed to working with them to raise awareness and access to the historic tax credits that can help small businesses and employees cover the cost of health care," said Treasury Secretary Jacob J. Lew.

"It's important for small business owners to know the facts about the Affordable Care Act and

Business.USA.gov/healthcare delivers resources and need-to-know information through one streamlined tool," said SBA Administrator Karen Mills. "This Website will prove to be an invaluable resource for small employers

The Affordable Care Act is providing better care and better choices for millions of Americans, and this is another great tool for employers to learn how they can offer health coverage that makes sense for their business and employees, and works for their bottom line," said HHS Secretary Kathleen Sebelius.

Many parts of the Affordable Care Act, which was signed into law in March 2010, are already in effect, including new consumer protections, and improvements to health care coverage that ensure consumers get more value for their premium dollars.

Additional benefits will take effect in late 2013 and beyond. Starting Oct. 1, 2013, individuals, including those who are self-employed, and small businesses looking for a better plan, will have a new way to shop for private health insurance through the Health Insurance Marketplace and the Small Business Health Options Program (SHOP) found at HealthCare.gov. Individuals may be eligible for lower costs on their monthly premiums and selfemployed individuals and small businesses may be eligible for tax credits to help with the costs of coverage.

visor Chuck Turner, this is the first time the floors have undergone such a process since the gym opened more than 18 years ago. With most floors needing repair every 10 to 12 years, the work was long overdue, he said.

"The finishes on the floor were getting so thick that they started letting go. We would have big sheets of finish come up off the floor," Turner said. Another problem is, as the finishes get thicker and thicker, they get yellower, and our white lines that we used for basketball were kind of a golden color. The wood looked like that, too. There was also a delamination of the plywood base.

Mors said the changes were not only necessary, but also have made a large difference in

The court's graphics have also been upgraded, Mors said. "There's now a bold 'YHS' at center court, and in the lanes, there's a buck head on one end and a gazelle head on the other end," he said. "Also the color scheme (of the free throw lanes) before was red, and now we went to black. It will really pop against the red bleachers instead of it all kind of blending together."

Mors said he believes that athletes and spectators alike will appreciate the floor's new appearance.

"It absolutely looks amazing," he said. "It's going to stand out, and it's something the whole community can be proud of.'

Tuesday, August 2, 1938 Whether the purr of the diesel towboat will ever be heard in the former port of Yankton depends, army engineers declare, on the amount of traffic which is carried on the upper river after navigation is opened as far upstream as Sioux City.

 Exhibits of 4-H club livestock at the 1938 state fair in Huron Sept. 11-16 will be approximately twice that which exhibited last year, Secretary Edgar A. Hornby announced today. The greateset increase, the secretary said, will probably be in the baby beef division in which approximately 600 boys have been feeding one or more calves since last November.
