Mead Update

PHOTO: DAKOTA TERRITORIAL MUSEUM

The day has finally come. All the "t's" are crossed and "i's" are dotted, and work on the Lead Project of the Mead Building can begin. Local woodworker, Ben Brunick of Chalkstone Woodworking, has been contracted to do the window restoration while new Project Director, Mike Casavant of Yankton, works with a team of Yankton Trusty Unit inmate workers to renovate the walls, ceiling, and floors of Mead. Additional assistance will be given by Roger Huntley of Huntley Plastering & Stucco of Yankton. Please respect our construction zone during the Lead Project. If you have questions or need access, please call the Dakota Territorial Museum at 665-3898. During Riverboat Days be sure to stop down at our booth by the river. We will have information and can answer questions about the Mead Building Project. As always, please stop by and see us at the Dakota Territorial Museum, 610 Summit Street (in Westside Park). Our summer hours are 10am-5pm Monday-Friday and Noon-4pm Saturday and Sunday. Don't forget, we are always looking for volunteers at the museum.
