ON THIS DATE

EDITOR'S NOTE: The "On This Date" entry for Aug. 5 was inadvertently omitted from Monday's Press & Dakotan. We present it here along with the Aug. 6 entry. We apologize for the inconvenience.

75 YEARS AGO

Friday, August 5, 1938
• Byer Rovaart, first merchant in Wagner, 38 years ago, closed his business here this week. A decline in health forced him to retire. Mr. Rovaart has several city property holdings in addition to his store building, which was one of the first buildings erected here.
• There are only 255 gun totes in South Dakota, exclusive of peace officers, who have a right to carry a pistol on their person or in their car, records of the secretary of state show.

50 YEARS AGO

Monday, August 5, 1963
• U. S. Army Corps of Engineers personnel spent from about 5:30 to 10 p.m. Sunday searching for Lawrence Reinert, Marcus, Ia., reported missing by his family who were camping in the lower tailwaters area below Gavins Point dam.
• Listeners throughout the world will have an opportunity to hear music performed by students and faculty at the University of South Dakota through Voice of America overseas broadcasts, John Wiggin, special project officer for VOA has announced.

25 YEARS AGO

Friday, August 5, 1988
• A 3,550 square foot addition creating 40 new jobs will be added in upcoming months at Valley State Bank in Yankton. The expansion is planned to accommodate the increasing demand in the bank's credit card operation.
• When it became a necessity, Yankton resident Thomas Benes became an inventor. He now has two products for which he has secured protection orders and is considering whether he wants to produce them in the future. The Yankton man constructed a metal mail clip to install on a mail box and a double-compartment glasses

Saturday, August 6, 1938
• Jonas Swenson, owner and inventor of the Swenson Puttyless Barn Sash, has just recently invented another article, this time a new type of cellar sash hinge which works on a spring idea. He invented this hinge so that it could be used with the Swenson puttyless cellar sash which the factory is now featuring.
• Governor Jensen's office Friday wrote Secretary of Agriculture H. A. Wallace requesting that the bureau of animal industry continue its former policy of making indemnity payments for cattle condemned to slaughter because of tubercular reaction.

50 YEARS AGO

Tuesday, August 6, 1963
• Hershey, Pa. bound for the second straight year and the third time in four years are the Yankton Teeners of Coach Don Baker. The Teeners whipped Thermopolis, Wyoming, 11 to 1 last night at Mitchell to claim the regional championship and the right to enter the national tournament at Hershey next week.
• Next Monday, August 12, on Hillcrest Golf and Country Club, the second annual Yankton Chamber of Commerce's Stags Play Day will be held. Last year's initial affair was a huge success and this year's tournament stacks up even better.

25 YEARS AGO

Saturday, August 6, 1988
• Raising of the state's drinking age to 21 has had little effect on Yankton area retailers, but in Vermillion college students may find their local pub no longer open this month. April 1 the legal drinking age in South Dakota was raised from age 19 to 21.
• The gathering of the old Greyhounds last week was a memorable occasion. Former Yankton College athletes from more than seven decades met to exchange old war stories from seasons and games long gone but not forgotten.

NRCS State Technical Committee To Meet

HURON — The Natural Resources Conservation Service (NRCS) will hold the State Technical Committee (STC) meeting on Wednesday, Aug. 14, at the Crossroads Hotel and Convention Center in Huron. The meeting is open to the public and will begin at 10 a.m. The STC serves as an advisor to the NRCS State Conservationist.

The tentative agenda for the meeting will include conservation programs update for FY-2013. These programs include the Environmental Quality Incentives Program (EQIP), Wildlife Habitat Incentives Program (WHIP), Wetlands Reserve Program (WRP), Grasslands Reserve Program (GRP), and Conservation Stewardship Program (CSP). Other topics of discussion include updates on Soil Health Initiative, Wetland Compliance, Pine Beetle Infestation, and Conservation Reserve Program (CRP).

Persons needing special accommodations should contact Jeff McGuire at (605) 352-1228 or jeffery.mcguire@sd.usda.gov at least one week in advance of the meeting date.
For more information, go to www.sd.nrcs.usda.gov or call (605) 352-1200.

DAILY RECORD
